Info. about signing up for Mass

The Archbishop issued instructions about a limited reopening of the public celebration of Mass on May 1st. All parishes are required to have some kind of sign-up process for people who wish to attend Mass, with a 25-person maximum allowed. At St. Catherine the weekend Masses require advance sign-up, but the weekday Masses do not (so far).

Please call or email the parish office (not Fr. Theo) to request a spot at Mass for the upcoming weekend.

Parishes are required to maintain a list of those people who attend the Masses, with their contact information, in case of a virus outbreak. Folks attending a weekday Mass are asked to please SIGN IN to provide this information.

The sign-up process is required to provide for a rotation of attendance in order that as many people as possible have access to Mass at least periodically. Those who attend one weekend are not given seats again until all those wishing to sign-up have had a chance to do so. Some parishes are maxed out for months at a time.

At St. Catherine we predict ending up with a rotation of 2 or 3 weeks, but we are still somewhat guessing until we get a little farther into this process.

The guidelines state that wearing a mask is left to the individual's discretion, but that anyone who plans to sing at Mass should be wearing one.

We should stay at least 6 feet apart from one another when at all possible, except for members of the same household.

We protect each other when we WEAR A MASK and STAY 6 FEET AWAY. Please notice the tape marks on the floor, especially for the Communion line.

Although no offertory takes place at Mass, a collection basket will be at both exits. You can also mail in, drop by the office, or sign up for online giving.

Important BBQ Meeting -THIS Wed. May 20, 7 p.m.
While all similar events are canceled throughout Oregon, is there anything we can salvage out of our BBQ in order to keep the 65th annual record alive? Maybe just sell the meat and sauce To-Go? Need ideas! Chairpersons, Publicity Committee (May 24th mtg. put on hold), anyone interested is welcome to attend. Questions: Sue Hallett 541-935-1806 or shallett1@msn.com
