Any help will be greatly appreciated.

First Reading

"Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people,
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
I am the LORD." Lv 19:18)

Psalm:

The Lord is kind and merciful. (Ps103)

Second Reading:

All belong to you, and you to Christ,
and Christ to God. (1Cor3:22-23)

Gospel:

"You have heard that it was said,
You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.
But, I say to you, love your enemies,
and pray for those who persecute you."

Saint of the week

Peter Damian is venerated as a saint and was made a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo XII on 27 September 1828 with a feast day which is now celebrated on 21 February (Ordinary calendar). In 1970, his feast was moved there from 23 February where it had been before.

Peter was born in Ravenna around 1007, the youngest of a large but poor noble family. Orphaned early, he was at first adopted by an elder brother, who ill-treated and under-fed him while employing him as a swineherd. After some years, another brother, Damianus, who was archpriest at Ravenna, had pity on him and took him away to be educated. Adding his brother's name to his own, Peter made such rapid progress in his studies of theology and canon law, first at Ravenna, then at Faenza, and finally at the University of Parma, that, around the age of 25, he was already a famous teacher at Parma and Ravenna.^[3]

COLLECT PRAYER

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that we may so follow the teaching and example of the Bishop Saint Peter Damian, that, putting nothing before Christ and always ardent in the service of your Church, we may be led to the joys of eternal light.

Please pray for our RCIA candidates'
