Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question: I've noticed that when I go to Mass at different parishes, sometimes people say and do different things. Why is that?

Answer: The Mass in its current forms has taken shape over the course of 2000 years. Over time, traditions, structures, and prayers have been put into place. There are certain rubrics for the Mass that are normative wherever you go. This means you could attend Mass in Malawi or Thailand or Italy and still watch the same basic liturgy unfold, even if you don't understand the language. There may be some cultural differences from place to place, things that aren't specifically listed. For example, in the United States most people go up for Communion in a nice, neat line. In Europe, everyone gets up around the same time. It's a bit of a free-for-all. Some people might take it upon themselves to change things individually. People may not like something that feels too "liberal" or "conservative," and they may take a well-meaning stance in the opposite direction. When people (including the presiders) do things that are distracting or change the liturgy, it introduces an element that breaks the unity of the assembled community.

The important thing to remember is that we gather as the Body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. If you are confused, ask! If you are frustrated, pray for the spirit of charity.

Peter's Pence Special Collection

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society; including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous.

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Without cost we have received;
without cost we are to give.

Do we open our hearts to one another with the same reckless love and mercy that God opens His heart to us?

How quickly the world could change
if we did.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." (Ex 19:5-6)

Psalm

We are his people: the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)

Second Reading

Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. (Rom 5:10)

Gospel

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. (Mt 10:1)

ON JULY 30 ☀

10:45 am ☀ AFTER

History of the Silver Rose

Our Lady of Guadalupe did so much for her people in Mexico that, in 1960, the Columbian Squires, a youth organization of the Knights of Columbus, wanted to give something back to her.

The group of young men in Knights of Columbus Council 2312 in Monterrey, Mexico, came up with the idea of running a rose to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Monterrey, Mexico. The rose was chosen to commemorate Juan Diego and the miracle of the roses, an important part of the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

The first rose was a natural rose and was blessed by Bishop John C. Cody of London. It was then flown to New York where it was received by Grand Knight Joseph Thomasen, who in turn, took it to Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart. Mr. Hart then shepherded the rose to Dallas, Texas.

There, Texas State Deputy Jack Collier received the rose and took it to Laredo, Texas, where it was finally given to the Squires from Monterrey, Mexico, at the International Bridge through Sabina Hidalgo N.L., Mexico, to Clenega de Flores and on to the Basilica in Monterey, Mexico, on December 12, 1960.

Father's Day

A Father's Day Blessing

*The Lord bless you
and keep you;
The Lord make his face shine on you
and . . . give you peace.
—Numbers 6:24-26*
