Rediscover Your Marriage

Retrouvaille simply means "rediscovery." The program offers the chance to rediscover, yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. Retrouvaille is not a spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering. Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication.

Visit helpourmarriage.org for testimonials, confidential information or to register for the August 25-27 class, in Canby, Oregon or email portland@retrovaille.com or call 503-225-9191

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question: What is Lectio Divina, and how is it associated with the Benedictine Monastic tradition, whose founder, St. Benedict, we honor on July 11?

Answer: Benedict desires his monks to live in community, praying the Liturgy of the Hours together, contemplating sacred texts, and doing manual labor. The monks developed a technique to facilitate a spiritual and devotional reading of the Bible known as Lectio Divina, the holy reading of a text. This method encourages the reader to hear the biblical text with an open heart and focus on whatever God wants to highlight and then apply it to daily life.

There are variations on Lectio Divina, but the technique consists of a three-step process of reflection. When the reflection is done with a group, the responses are shared by all the participants. Once the text is selected, it is read meditatively, and the following are then explored: a word or phrase that attracts you; how and where the content of this reading touches your life today; what you believe that God wants you to do during this coming week (month, year, lifetime).

Thanks to Benedict, the Christian community has been gifted with this special way of entering into biblical text. This week, use the Lectio Divina process on one of the readings for the coming Sunday and make a note of the life connections you are making.

How is this reflection on the biblical text drawing you closer to God and others?

12th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Sing to the LORD,
praise the LORD,
for he has rescued the life of the poor
from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

Psalm

Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading

But the gift is not like the transgression.
For if by the transgression of the one the many died,
how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one-man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Gospel

"What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light:
what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops.
And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. " (Mt 10:28)

Live the Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Christ promises to acknowledge us before his Father if we will acknowledge him. In what ways are we called to acknowledge Christ today? In what ways are we tempted to deny him, to distance ourselves from him?
