WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained

Question: Aren't Christians hypocritical when they judge people, since Jesus said, "Don't Judge"?

Answer: Jesus condemned hypocritical and inaccurate judgements, but we know he could not have condemned judgement itself, because he taught the crowds the right way to judge! "Do not judge by appearances but judge with right judgement" (John 7:24).

We don't know the content of someone's soul, so we can't ever say with certainty if he is in a state of grace or not. That's why St. Paul tells us not to "pronounce judgement before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart" (Cor. 4:5). We can however judge human actions and determine if they are good or evil."

If we couldn't do that, then we could never say any act is right or wrong — including the act of judging other people's actions!

So, we should judge whether people's actions are right or wrong but not in order to make ourselves feel morally superior to them. That is the attitude Jesus condemned when he said, "Judge not, that you be not judged. If we judge other people's sins, then we must take care, because that same judgement will come upon us (and possibly in a harsher way) if we commit those same sins (Matt. 7:2). LPI©

Question of the Week

First Reading

The prophet Jeremiah speaks of the loneliness and ridicule he endures for answering his prophetic call.

Who do you turn to in times of personal sadness and distress?

Second Reading

Paul challenges us not to be conformed to the present world "but be transformed by the renewal of your mind."

What can you do this week to grow in your thinking as someone who believes in Jesus?

Gospel

Peter is resistant to Jesus' revelation that as the Messiah, he is destined to suffer and die before rising.
