WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

QUESTION

If the Eucharist is really Christ, shouldn't it heal sick or wounded people who receive it?

ANSWER

Not necessarily. By that reasoning, the sacrament of baptism should accomplish the same thing, because we receive God in his divinity — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - in receiving baptism. And while baptism washes away our sins and gives us the gift of sanctifying grace — and there is nothing greater than that — the healing of sick or wounded people typically doesn't accompany reception of baptism.

Similarly, in the Eucharist, we receive Jesus Christ in his divinity as well as his glorified body, blood, soul, and divinity; but physical healings do not typically accompany reception of the Eucharist. And yet, again, we receive an increase of sanctifying grace and grow closer to our Lord Jesus; and so we truly experience a foretaste of heaven. CA®

Votive Candles at St. Catherine

Votive candles are a sign of prayer.

We usually light them when we are seeking a special favor from God, such as the healing of someone who is sick; eternal rest for someone who has died; safe journey for a traveler; or, success in an endeavor. We may also light candles to show our gratitude to God for a blessing(s) we have received.

At St. Catherine, we have the small candles that burn for eight hours. Please place your offering of 40 cents per candle in the designated slot on left side of candle rack.

PLEASE NOTE that due to the high cost of candle maintenance, the number of votive candles available in Church will be limited each month. We Thank you for your patience and understanding.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week?

Second Reading: Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family and friends?

Gospel: For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

PRAYER FOR COMFORT FOR ALL WHO MOURN

In our sorrow, may God's love give us a peaceful heart. May we be blessed and consoled by our Lord, Jesus Christ, who gently wipes every tear from our eyes. We pray for this in the name of the Father, and of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day; unseen, unheard, but always near; they are always in our hearts, so dear.
