POPE LEO XIV UNIVERSAL PRAYER INTENTION: JUNE

That the world might grow in compassion:

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion for the world.

O Lord, our God
How wonderful your name in all the earth

Psalm 8

REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:
 Proverbs teaches us that the wisdom of God was present with God throughout creation, playing on earth and finding delight in humans. What brings delight to your life?

Second Reading:
 Paul encouraged believers that in Jesus we have peace with God and through the Holy Spirit we have the love of God in our hearts. Why do you think these fruits of the Holy Trinity have been given to us?

Gospel:
 Jesus taught his disciples that the Spirit gives to believers everything the Father has given to the Son. When have you been generous to others?

TODAY'S READINGS

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION OF THE WEEK

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light, the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look unto the light? Are we ready to see the truth? ©LPI

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

What is Trinity Sunday?

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, called "Trinity Sunday," is celebrated one week after the Pentecost.

This feast was made universal in 1911, there were private devotions, certain liturgical prayers and prefaces, and hymns in the liturgy.

There was an office of the Holy Trinity written by Bishop Stephen of Liege in the 10th Century, but there was not a universal feast of the entire Church until the Pope John XXII instituted one as a second-class feast in the 14th Century. In 1911, Pope St Pius X elevated the feast to first-class.

Here are a couple of ideas of how to celebrate Trinity Sunday!

RECITE THE ATHANASIAN CREED

Prior to the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council, it was customary to pray the Athanasian Creed on Trinity Sunday. This Creed is slightly older than the usual Sunday Mass Creed (the Niceno-Constantinopolitan "Nicene" Creed). St. Athanasius was a Greek Church father in the 3rd and 4th centuries. He was the chief defender of the Church against the Arian heresy. Arianism is a heresy that centers on the nature of Jesus Christ, but it also is a denial of the Trinity. As such, St. Athanasius was a staunch defender and explainer of Trinitarian orthodoxy. Therefore, the Creed that bears his name is so important to the life of the Church in praying and worshipping God correctly as Trinity.

The Athanasian Creed has been used in the Church's Liturgy. The ancient profession of Faith in the Trinity can be found full here:

"Now the Catholic faith is that we worship One God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confounding the Persons nor dividing the substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, another of the Holy Spirit. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, is One, the Glory equal the Majesty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit; the Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Spirit uncreated; the Father infinite, the Son infinite, and the Holy Spirit infinite; the Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Spirit eternal. And yet not three eternal, but one eternal, as also not three infinite, nor three uncreated, but one uncreated and one infinite. So, likewise, the Father is almighty, the Son almighty, and the Holy Spirit almighty; and yet not three almighties but one almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son God, and the Holy Spirit God; and yet not three Gods but one God. So the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Spirit Lord; and yet not three Lords but one Lord. For like as we are compelled by Christian truth to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be both God and Lord; so we are forbidden by the Catholic religion to say, there be three Gods or three Lords.

The Father is made of none, neither created nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made nor created but begotten. The Holy Spirit is of the Father and the Son, not made nor created nor begotten but proceeding. So there is one Father not three Fathers, one Son not three Sons, and Holy Spirit not three Holy Spirits. And in this Trinity there is nothing before or after, nothing greater or less, but the whole three Persons are coeternal together and coequal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Trinity in Unity and the Unity in Trinity is to be worshipped. He therefore who wills to be in a state of salvation, let him think thus of the Trinity."

Pray the "Glory Be" Prayer

The Gloria Patri known as "Glory Be" or "Glory Be to the Father" is a short hymn of praise taken from the Liturgy. This prayer goes all the way back, in the East and the West, to the 4th Century. There are some minor variations between the different versions, but the hymn of praise is the same.

The Gloria Patri in Latin is:

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritu Sancto, Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

The standard version in English-speaking world when reciting the prayer outside of the liturgy is:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The version from the Latin Liturgy of the Hours goes:

Glory to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

As an aside, considering the phrase "world without end" is an invention of the Protestant King James Version of the Bible, I tend to like the Liturgy of the hours version more.

My favorite translation is the version used in English-speaking Byzantine Catholic Prayer:

Glory to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen

When we pray the Rosary: we say as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen

Whichever one you decide to pray: pray it with devotion and faith!
