

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
AUGUST 8, 2021

BAPTISM: During Mass on the weekends; if outside of Mass, on Saturday or Sunday afternoon only. If this is your first child to be baptized, you must meet with Msgr. Rick Colletti for instructions. Please call the St. Adrian Parish office at 507-483-2317 prior to setting the date of the baptism.

MARRIAGE: Please make arrangements at least six months in advance. Your first visit with Msgr. Rick Colletti will be to set the date of your wedding. Please call the St. Adrian Parish Office at (507) 483-2317. Marriage Preparation Course is required

*"Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!"
He got up, ate, and drank;
then strengthened by that food,
he walked forty days and forty nights
to the mountain of God, Horeb. ~1Kings 19:8*

Catholic Charities Disperses Adoption Myths

Please join us for a free, one hour training on Modern Adoption. This online course will go over the types of adoption, who birthparents are and why they choose adoption, positive adoption language, and how to support those exploring their options. It's estimated that 40% of American adults know someone who has been adopted. Our goal is to dispel some common myths about adoption and give you confidence in talking about adoption with someone who is considering their options! This course is geared toward professionals and community members who want to learn what adoption is all about. This training is offered via zoom on August 19, 2021 at 1:00 PM. Register at <https://www.ccsomn.org/calendar/modern-adoption/> or by emailing adoption@ccsomn.org. We are also happy to schedule this training at no cost for your entire team.

HEALTH MINISTRY INFORMATION

DON'T BE FOOLED! Breakthrough, exclusive, secret, overnight, effortless, miraculous: these words are often associated with nutrition or weight loss quackery. Be a smart consumer. Ask questions and use skeptical judgment before buying any nutrition or weight loss product. Are the results heavily focused on testimonials? If there was a study, how many people were in it? Who did the research and were they unbiased? If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is! Source: Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Respect Life: "Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Solace and Strength in the Sorrow of Miscarriage"

PASTOR'S CORNER

In the ninth century B.C. the Israelite prophet Elijah defeated Queen Jezebel's pagan prophets on Mount Carmel. She was determined therefore to get rid of Elijah. He fled to his roots at Mount Horeb or Sinai. The destination was no accident. At Horeb the people of Israel discovered their destiny as God's people. Elijah entered into the experience of his ancestors and thus gained strength to speak out on behalf of God.

Bread continues to be a symbol of the person and work of Jesus in today's gospel. As bread sustains life, Jesus will sustain all who approach Him in faith. Jesus seems to possess merely human credentials as Joseph's son, but Jesus is actually the manifestation of God. To acknowledge Jesus as the living bread is the ultimate expression of God's love in Christ's death and glorification. We reach out to the homeless because we see God's image in all people. We reject violence as a settlement for conflict because we accept the gospel of the Prince of Peace. We uphold our neighbor's reputation because that person is a brother or sister in Christ. We do all of these Christian works because we have our roots in the divine origin of Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier.
