Cross Catholic Outreach: Dear Parishioners of St. Adrian, St. Anthony, and Our Lady of Good Counsel; Thank you for your recent gift to Cross Catholic Outreach to help us meet the needs of the poor in Santa Rose for the Advent House project. Your generosity and compassion have been an answer to our prayers as we continue to carry Christ's love in word and deed around the world. With your help, we are bearing witness to the Gospel through tangible acts of mercy that are changing lives and providing hope for the future. You are a valued partner in our work, empowering us to advance the biblical imperative to "love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God" (1 John 1:7). Thank you for answering that call and helping us shine the light of compassion upon the least, the last and the lost. May you be blessed for your kindness, as God's Word says in Luke 6:38, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." Your Brother in Christ, James J. Cavnar, President.

PASTOR'S CORNER

In today's Scripture readings, the central characters are people of action. Isaiah's call takes place in 739 B.C. The tiny kingdom of Judah was threatened by the Assyrians, the people are in no mood to hear the Lord's message. Nevertheless, Isaiah jumps into the fray, saying, "Here am I; send me!". The impulsive Peter steps forward in the gospel. At first Peter calls Jesus "master." After the miraculous catch of fish, he changes the title to "Lord." Jesus invites Peter to become a different kind of fisherman. Luke says they must leave everything to become Jesus' followers. The Lord calls us today. The challenge is to join Isaiah and Peter in saying, "Here I am, Lord, send me!"

Our Lady of Lourdes ~ February 11th

Congratulations to Vince and Mary Mulder on the celebration of their 60th Wedding Anniversary!!

Marriage

*"Marriage is a vocation
to put God in every detail of love.
In this way, the dream of the bride and groom
For eternal happiness really comes true,
Not in themselves alone, but through themselves.
Now they love each other
not as they dreamed they would,
but as God dreamed they would."*

~Archbishop Fulton Sheen in "Three to Get Married"
