Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

September 15th

Mary, most holy Virgin and Queen of Martyrs, accept the sincere homage of my filial affection.

*Into thy heart, pierced by so many swords,
do thou welcome my poor soul.*

*Receive it as the companion of thy sorrows
at the foot of the Cross,*

*on which Jesus died
for the redemption of the world.*

*With thee, O sorrowful Virgin,
I will gladly suffer all the trials, contradictions,
and infirmities which it shall please
our Lord to send me.*

*I offer them all to thee in memory of thy sorrows,
so that every thought of my mind,
and every beat of my heart*

may be an act of compassion and of love for thee.

*And do thou, sweet Mother, have pity on me,
reconcile me to thy divine Son Jesus,*

*keep me in His grace,
and assist me in my last agony,*

*so that I may be able to meet thee in heaven

PASTOR'S CORNER

All three scripture readings for our weekend Masses confront sinfulness: Israel sinfully worshiping the golden calf, Paul confessing his former blasphemy and arrogance, and the scribes and Pharisees murmuring that Jesus welcomes sinners and eats with them. Exodus tells of the Israelites' impatience with Moses' prolonged absence on Mount Sinai. Angry at God, they persuade Aaron to make them another god, the golden calf. An emotionally charged bargaining session follows. Moses presents reasons why Yahweh should not destroy this "stiff-necked people": They are Yahweh's people; the Egyptians would mock a God who destroyed the very people God had just saved; destruction would break God's own promise of a great nation and many descendants.

God's mercy is bestowed, the same mercy that is highlighted in the second reading. Paul speaks of the great sinner he was before his conversion; yet in Jesus, he received overflowing grace. Paul is an example for every Christian. Conversion is Christ's doing, not ours. It is an ongoing process rather than something completed at baptism. If there had been any doubt about God's patience, there can be none remaining with the gift of Jesus as Savior.

When the gospel says there is more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine righteous persons, it does not mean we might as well go out and sin. The point is that those who are ever faithful to the Lord experience a joy that overflows onto the one returning from the exile of sin. This is the heart of the gospel of Jesus: those lost and found, those strayed and returned, those who have sinned and been forgiven.

I hope to see many of you at St. Anthony's Fall Bazaar this Sunday for dinner and activities. Our fall festivals are always a wonderful time to enjoy each other's company. Next weekend, (9/18) is St. Adrian's Fall Bazaar. Besides the day's dinner and activities, Fr. Jason Kern, the Vocation Director of our diocese will be with us for the festivities. Fr. Jason was with me in Winona at the Cathedral, and it will be wonderful to have him here to share about vocations.

Saqer Salman from Holy Land Olive Art will be at our parishes this weekend at all Masses; He will have beautiful Olive wood Art for Sale at all our Churches the weekend of September 17/18. See this week's insert on the work and ministry of Holy Land Olive Art.

Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your Cross you have redeemed the world.
