Faithful Chronicles

By Father Frank D. Almade

Our parishioners are not the only ones who have special devotion to St. Joseph. So does Pope Francis. He blessed the universal church on December 8, 2020, by calling for a “Year of Saint Joseph,” until December 8, 2021.

In the Pope’s Apostolic Letter “Patris Corde” (With a Father’s Heart), he describes Saint Joseph as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father. The Apostolic Letter marks the 150th anniversary of Pope Pius IX’s declaration of St. Joseph as the Patron of the Universal Church. The Holy Father wrote “Patris Corde” against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic, which, he says, has helped us see more clearly the importance of “ordinary” people, who are far from the limelight but exercise patience and serve their neighbors every day. In this they resemble St. Joseph, the unnoticed, discreet and dutiful worker.

Here are some of the saintly titles Pope Francis uses to describe St. Joseph. He is a tender father whose love is placed at the service of the Messiah. He is a father in obedience to God, to protect Mary and Jesus, and to teach his Son to do the will of the father. He is an accepting father, who accepted Mary as his wife unconditionally. He is a father full of hope, who accepts life as it is, with all its contradictions, frustrations and disappointments. The carpenter of Nazareth lived with creative courage, which emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties. He was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting in divine providence.

St. Joseph is a special patron of all those forced to leave their native lands because of war, hatred, persecution or poverty. (See Matthew 2: 13-15, 19-23) From St. Joseph, writes Pope Francis, we must learn to love the Church and the poor.

St. Joseph the Worker earned an honest living to provide for his family. He taught us the value, dignity and joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one’s own labor. In this regard the pope affirms Catholic social teaching on the meaning of work and support of all workers. Work is a means of participating in the work of salvation, to develop our own God-given talents and abilities and to hasten the coming of the reign of God on earth. Especially in light of rising unemployment due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the pope calls all nations to review our priorities and to express our firm conviction that no young person or anyone with dependents should be without work.

Using the image of a Polish theologian, Pope Francis describes Joseph’s fatherhood of Jesus as “the earthly shadow of the heavenly Father.” Pope Francis writes, “fathers are not born but made.” “A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking on the responsibility to care for that child.” St. Joseph is also described “a most chaste father,” which is the opposite of domineering possessiveness. He lived and loved with extraordinary freedom. He never made himself the center of things, focusing rather on the lives of Mary and Jesus.

At the end of “Patris Corde” Pope Francis offers us a prayer to St. Joseph, which he encourages all followers of Christ to pray:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust, with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

For this special “Year of St. Joseph” Pope Francis invites all who have devotion to him to receive a plenary indulgence. The usual conditions necessary are sacramental confession, reception of Holy Communion, and prayer for the pope’s intentions. Pope Francis has also expanded the conditions for those who are prevented from going to Mass. One may meditate for at least one half hour on St. Joseph and his many titles and virtues. The indulgence can also be obtained by those who, following St. Joseph’s example, will perform a spiritual or corporal work of mercy. Praying the Rosary is encouraged in families and among engaged couples.

All are urged to entrust their daily activities to the protection of St. Joseph, under the title of artisan and carpenter. On May 1, 1955, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of St. Joseph the Worker “with the intent that the dignity of work be recognized by all, and that it inspires social life and laws, based on the fair distribution of rights and duties” and promotion of the common good.

Father Jeremy Mohler wrote a fine explanation of the details of seeking a plenary indulgence in this bulletin last Fall. If you have any questions, please talk with him.

Let us all seek in our hearts the intentions of the foster father of our Savior, Jesus Christ, during this Year of Prayer. St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us!

SPECIAL COLLECTION—JANUARY 16 & 17

The Pittsburgh Diocese is home to two nationally recognized educational programs for children with special needs: St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech (formerly known as The DePaul Institute). A collection to benefit these two organizations will be taken the weekend of January 16-17, 2021 at all Masses at each church. St. Anthony School Programs provides Catholic special education to children with development delays and autism in five elementary/intermediate classrooms, two secondary classrooms and two college-age programs located on the campuses of Duquesne University and the University of Pittsburgh. St. Anthony's has also partnered with Carlow University to add an academic component to the curriculum for qualified post-secondary students. DePaul School for Hearing and Speech provides Listening and Spoken Language (LSL) education to children who are deaf or hard of hearing. Without the use of sign language, DePaul students learn to listen and speak and successfully transition to their neighborhood schools alongside their peers with typical hearing. Your donation will help St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech to further their goals of providing quality educational programs and services to their students. Your support is critical. Your generosity will help these organizations forever improve the lives of their students and families.

HOW TO BE A CATHOLIC MAN IN THE WORLD TODAY

We invite men of our parish to attend a gathering of Catholic Men's Fellowship the first and third Saturday of each month from 9:00 am until 10:30 am in the basement of St. Colman Church. The purpose of our CMF is to bring men into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ. Our small group of 10-15 men meet for 90 minutes to pray, socialize, discuss their faith, and issues they are grappling within their lives. We support, affirm, and share insights about the difficulties men encounter in both their home and work lives and retirement. The men participating in our CMF Group have cultivated lasting friendships, have fun, learn from one another to be a better husband, father, son, employee, retiree, and Catholic parishioner. Any questions, please call 412-596-2544 for details. Please plan to "Come and See" at our next meeting January 16, 2021.

EPIPHANY HOUSE BLESSING

Items needed: chalk and a small bottle of holy water.

Gather with family members, friends and neighbors.

In the (+) name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Tradition names the Magi:

Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar.

With chalk, sign their initials along with four crosses for the seasons and the numerals of the new year on the doorway.

20 + C + M + B + 21

Let us pray: Christus mansionem benedicat.

May Christ bless this house, Amen.

Leader (or other reader) may read the following passage or another suitable one:

A reading from the Letter to the Galatians.

So then, while there is time let us do good for all people, especially those who are of the household of faith.

The Word of the Lord.

Each room is sprinkled with holy water.

Living Room:

Bring us to live with you one day in heaven.

Bless this room, O Lord, Amen.

Kitchen:

You prepare for us a rich feast.

Bless this room, O Lord, Amen.

Dining Room:

Feed us at the heavenly banquet.

Bless this room, O Lord, Amen.

Bedrooms:

In you, alone we rest securely.

Bless this room, O Lord, Amen.

Bathroom:

You cleanse us from every impurity.

Bless this room, O Lord, Amen.

All return to the front door to pray together.

Our Father . . .

All are sprinkled with holy water.

Bless this household through all days to come, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

THANK YOU

The ladies of POWER and the Bethlehem Haven are grateful for the immense generosity of the parishioners of St. Joseph the Worker Parish, the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, and Target. Over 75 women have greatly benefitted from this generosity. There was also enough to help countless others who will pass through their doors. It should warm your heart to know how Jesus thinks of those who donated. Thank you a million times. Please keep those that need our help in your prayers also.

Rosemary Hulsman, Marci Mason, and Cheryl Riley, Coordinators

THANK YOU

The Giving Tree collected hundreds of gifts and thousands of dollars worth of gift certificates to benefit over 100 seniors, over 200 families, hundreds of children and 15 babies. On their behalf, we thank the parishioners of St. Joseph the Worker Parish.

Congregational Hymns and Responses for the Mass - January 10, 2021

The faithful are required to wear their face masks completely covering the nose and mouth at all times during the Mass. You may remove the mask only to receive Holy Communion. Collections baskets are located near the Ministers of the Eucharist. You are invited to place your offering into the baskets as you approach to receive communion. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding during this difficult time.

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

Gathering Hymn When Jesus Came to Be Baptized

When Jesus comes to be baptized,
He leaves the hidden years behind,
The years of safety and of peace.
To bear the sins of all mankind.

The Spirit of the Lord comes down,
Anoints the Christ to suffering,
To preach the word, to free the bound,
And to the mourner, comfort bring.

He will not quench the dying flame,
And what is bruised he will not break,
But heal the wound injustice dealt,
And out of death his triumph make.

O Spirit help us be like Christ:
To live in love and charity
To walk in truth and justice now
And grow in Christian dignity.

Greeting

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we a-dore you, we glo-ri-fy you, we give you thanks for your great glo-ry, Lord God, heav-en-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther. Lord
Je-sus Christ, On-ly Be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us; you take a-way the sins of the world, re-ceive our prayer; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men. A-men.

Homily

Profession of Faith

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Baptized in Water

(Sung during the distribution of Holy Communion to the faithful. Please take your belongings with you, and follow the instructions of the ushers. The faithful are asked to depart quietly after receiving Holy Communion, following the guidance of the ushers. Thank you.)

1. Baptized in water, Sealed by the Spirit,
Cleansed by the blood of Christ our King:
Heirs of salvation, Trusting his promise,
Faithfully now God's praise we sing.
2. Baptized in water, Sealed by the Spirit,
Dead in the tomb with Christ our King:
One with his rising, Freed and forgiven,
Thankfully now God's praise we sing.
3. Baptized in water, Sealed by the Spirit,
Marked with the sign of Christ our King:
Born of one Father, We are his children,
Joyfully now God's praise we sing.

Come to the River

Come, O come, come to the river flowing from the body of Christ.
We'll go down, deep in the water,
but in the Lord we shall arise.

Washed in the waters of rebirth, we have put on Christ Jesus.
Priestly people are we, sealed and sent by the Spirit.
Blest are those who thirst for the reign of God's justice.
Let us walk in the light of God's holy promise.
Those who sow in tears reap the harvest rejoicing.
