Faithful Chronicles
By Father Frank D. Almade

A priest friend and I were having one of our regular conversations, and doing what priests often do: complain about the church. With more than eight decades of ministry between us, we have lots of discussions. I won't bore you with the details of our complaints many of which you can probably guess. But as we do at the end of every conversation, my priest friend and I conclude that we have to take the human dimensions of the church more seriously.

What do I mean by that? We believe what the Catholic church teaches, that the church is of divine origin. Not for a second do I doubt this. But this divinely inspired body is made up of fallible, flawed, even sinful human beings.

A quick look at history points to the human dimension of the church: Judas and Peter betrayed Jesus and all the apostles fled in His hour of need; our many heresies against true church teaching; the split between Eastern and Western churches in the eleventh century; the crusades; corrupt popes; embracing slavery (until the nineteenth century); the clergy sexual abuse of minors scandal of the past 70 years.

Yet history also witnesses to the holiness of men and women in following Jesus Christ: the missionary travels of Peter and Paul and the apostles; great theologians such as Augustine, Ambrose, Gregory, and Thomas Aquinas; the prophetic witness of poor Francis of Assisi and his "little brothers and sisters"; visionaries Theresa of Avila and John of the Cross; the social teachings of the church; the Holy popes of the past 150 years.

When my classmate and I think of the humanity of the church, we look at the little things: a phone call to the parish office returned promptly; the smile of a Eucharistic Minister as he/she distributes Holy Communion; a Deacon's homily which brings Sacred Scripture alive; the smiles of children making their First Holy Communion.

These simple human actions are not limited to the clergy, parish staff or our most dedicated volunteers. Every person can and should take the responsibility for making his/her parish a warm and welcoming community. Kind words and charitable acts happen on the properties of our eight churches. They also occur in the produce department of Kuhn's, or in a work place (virtual or in person).

Every Catholic can repeat the sad stories of a rude priest or lifeless liturgy. If we take seriously the human dimension of the church, all the members of the body of Christ can change the message. When we do those little things which reflect Christ's love, we make God's presence more visible in the church.

Health Update

I continue to be touched by the number of people praying for my health and well being. Right now, I can only get around using a walker. But the bruises on my body are slowly healing, and with the help of physical therapy, I hope to be walking without assistance soon. I have also resumed the chemo treatments for cancer. Keep praying for me as I pray for all of us.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share:

"Judas failed to love God when he betrayed His only Son. How many times have we betrayed Him when we failed to love our sisters and brothers simply because they do not look like us, talk like us, love like us, identify like us or pray like us!"

REFLECT

FIRST READING
In the immediate aftermath of Jesus' ascension, and as a means for healing within the group, Peter and the apostles discerned Matthias as the replacement for Judas. What are some areas in your faith life that need healing in order to feel whole?

SECOND READING
John testifies that his community has "come to know and to believe in the love God has for us." Do you think your faith community shares a similar conviction of faith in the love of God?

GOSPEL READING
We hear Jesus' prayer to his Father for the protection of the disciples, especially against "the evil one" in the world. Where do you personally experience evil in the world today?

Congregational Hymns & Responses for the 7th Sunday of Easter—May 16, 2021

Greeting

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Homily

Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down
from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful Lord, Hear Our Prayer

St Joseph prayer recited at the end of the Prayer of the Faithful:

O God, Creator of all things,
who laid down for the human race the law of work,
graciously grant that by the example of Saint Joseph
and under his patronage,
we may complete the works you set us to do,
and attain the rewards you promise.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Michael Burke has created a thorough training program for new volunteers and as an added bonus, you get to sit with me during mass! Email me for details.

Today's Virtual Choir video (seen during the 10am Mass LiveStream and on at YouTube.com/c/SJWPitt), is an arrangement of the familiar Beautiful Savior text, set to music by my friend, Kirk A. Wilson. Kirk was a brilliant organist and composer who played in many Pittsburgh area churches. Sadly, Kirk passed away suddenly in 2006 at the age of 42, but the legacy of his music lives on.

Thanks to all of the musicians who keep the music alive at St. Joseph the Worker!
