15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:30b-31, 33

Faithful Chronicles
By Father Frank D. Almade

Father Ken Kezmarsky joined the clergy team of St. Joseph the Worker Parish on July 1 as Senior Parochial Vicar. I am happy to welcome him to our wonderful community. I asked him to tell us a little about himself. Here are his words:

I am the son of the late Joseph and Katherine (Hreha) Kezmarsky. I have an older brother, Jerry, and his wife, Patty, who live in McCandless, and who have two children, Kristina and Nicholas. I grew up in the neighborhood of Sheraden, in the city of Pittsburgh. My home parish was Holy Innocents. I attended Holy Innocents Grade School, Bishop Canevin High School, Duquesne University and St. Paul Seminary, and St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe. I was ordained to the priesthood on June 30, 1986 by Bishop Anthony Bevilacqua.

In my priestly ministry I have been in many parts of the Diocese of Pittsburgh with many opportunities to preach the Word of God, and to do whatever was needed in the particular assignment. These include being pastor of St. Alphonsus, Springdale, as well as serving as parochial vicar in parishes in Allegheny and Beaver counties, and as a nursing home chaplain in Canonsburg. My most recent assignment was parochial vicar at Triumph of the Holy Cross Parish. Like St. Joseph the Worker, it was a combination of churches created July 1, 2020, with Holy Spirit, West Mifflin; St. Clare, Clairton; St. Elizabeth, Pleasant Hills and St. Thomas a Beckett, Jefferson Hills. I realize that I come here to St. Joseph the Worker Parish, which includes four more churches. This sounds a little more overwhelming, but I will give it the old college try.

Parishioner's names and building relationship will take lots of time and effort, so please be patient with me on these two aspects of parish life. Learning the new streets and way of getting around to all the churches will also be a challenge, but also possible. I am certain the expectations from everyone will be daunting to match, but time is what we all have to make with it. I look forward to seeing you in the pews or at the store or in the restaurants. I am looking forward to working with the clergy team as well as with the parish staff. Thank you for letting me share a little bit of my story with you. May the Lord Jesus continue to bless us all and all of our efforts to make St. Joseph the Worker Parish strong, full of faith and love, with a great spirit of generosity as we journey together.

If you see Father Ken at any Mass or service over the next month, be sure say hello, introduce yourself, and welcome him to St. Joseph the Worker Parish.

I want to bring to your attention a special community service. The Nied Funeral Home of Swissvale is sponsoring a gun buy-back program. On Saturday, August 6, from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon, bring your rifles or handguns to Nied's, at 7441 Washington Avenue in Swissvale, and receive a gift card. Rifles earn a $25 gift card; handguns a $50 gift card; and AR-15 type rifles a $100 gift card. No questions asked. Mr. Charles Nied says, "At Nied's we are celebrating our 100th anniversary. It's time for us to give back to our neighborhood. We are donating $10,000 in Giant Eagle gift cards to buy back any guns. It's time to make a difference." Nied's is working with local law enforcement officers to facilitate this gun buy-back program. Nied's welcomes any local company, organization or individual who would like to support this effort and make a donation to this gun buy-back program. Call them at 412-271-0345 for more information.

A couple of weeks ago I mentioned the excellent ChristLife series for adult faith formation, which is sponsored by our parish and begins on Tuesday, August 9. For those adults who are interested in growing in their faith, here are two more local programs of quality faith formation.

The Institute for Ministry Formation at St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe offers on-line courses in theology and spiritual direction. Fall offerings include the sacrament of anointing of the sick, introduction to spiritual direction, and praying Sacred Scripture. Learn more about start dates and fees by emailing imf@stvincent.edu or calling 724-805-2729.

The Epiphany Association offers courses and formation sessions that feature ancient, medieval and modern Christian masters and their writings. Some courses address spirituality by certain themes, such as Christian discipleship, virtue or ways of prayer. Other courses are focused on a particular classic book, such as "The Interior Castle" or "Abandonment to Divine Providence." The Epiphany Association also offers retreat days, evenings of reflection and webinars. The Epiphany Association is located on Crane Avenue in the Beechview neighborhood of Pittsburgh. Deacon Keith Kondrich is a frequent participant at Epiphany Association classes. Talk with him about their offerings. Visit their website at epiphanyassociation.org or call 412-341-7494.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It's important to keep our eyes open. Otherwise, we can easily dismiss things that truly require our attention. Whether it is someone needing care, a wrong that must be rectified, an injustice that must be addressed, or someone in need of a helping hand, the lens through which we view life (and even the rules by which we live) can prevent us from stopping and acting. Whether it's an obsession with being on time, a compulsion to complete tasks according to a schedule, or a rigidity with not breaking a law or fear of taking a risk, we miss daily opportunities to show mercy. We often fail in our duty to be a good neighbor, especially when it involves brothers and sisters remote from us whom we have never met. The pain of the world is our pain. God's law of love, mercy, and compassion is not something remote. It's already within us and very near. All we have to do is open our eyes and carry it out.

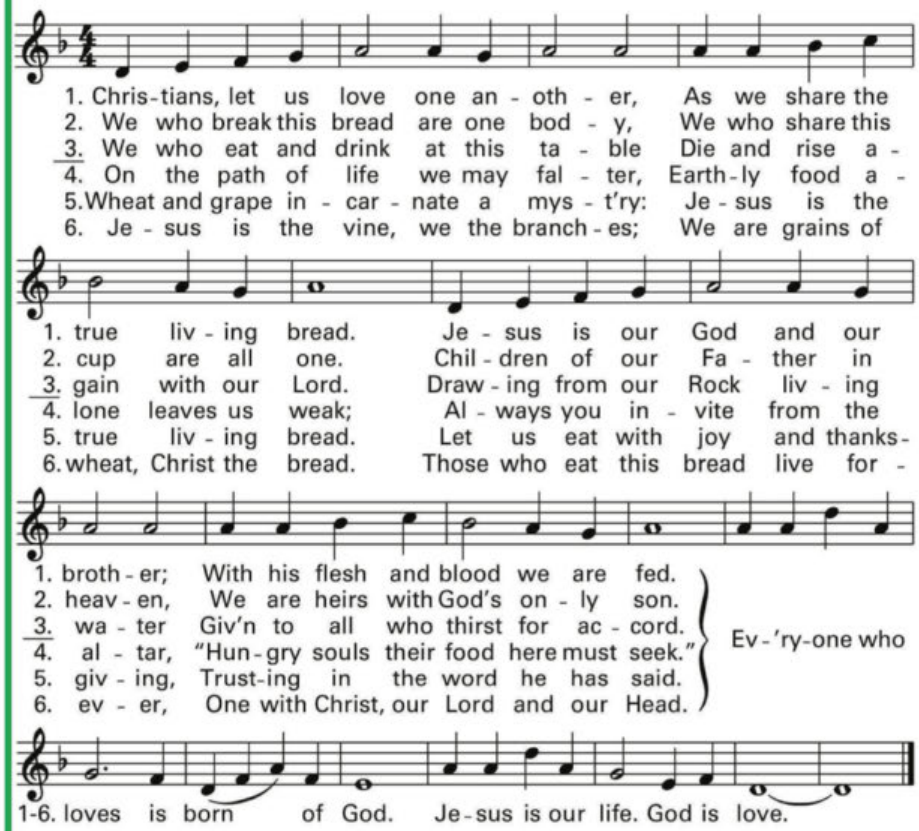
THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

Gathering Hymn — Christians Let Us Love One Another



Sign of the Cross & Greeting

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you,
my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

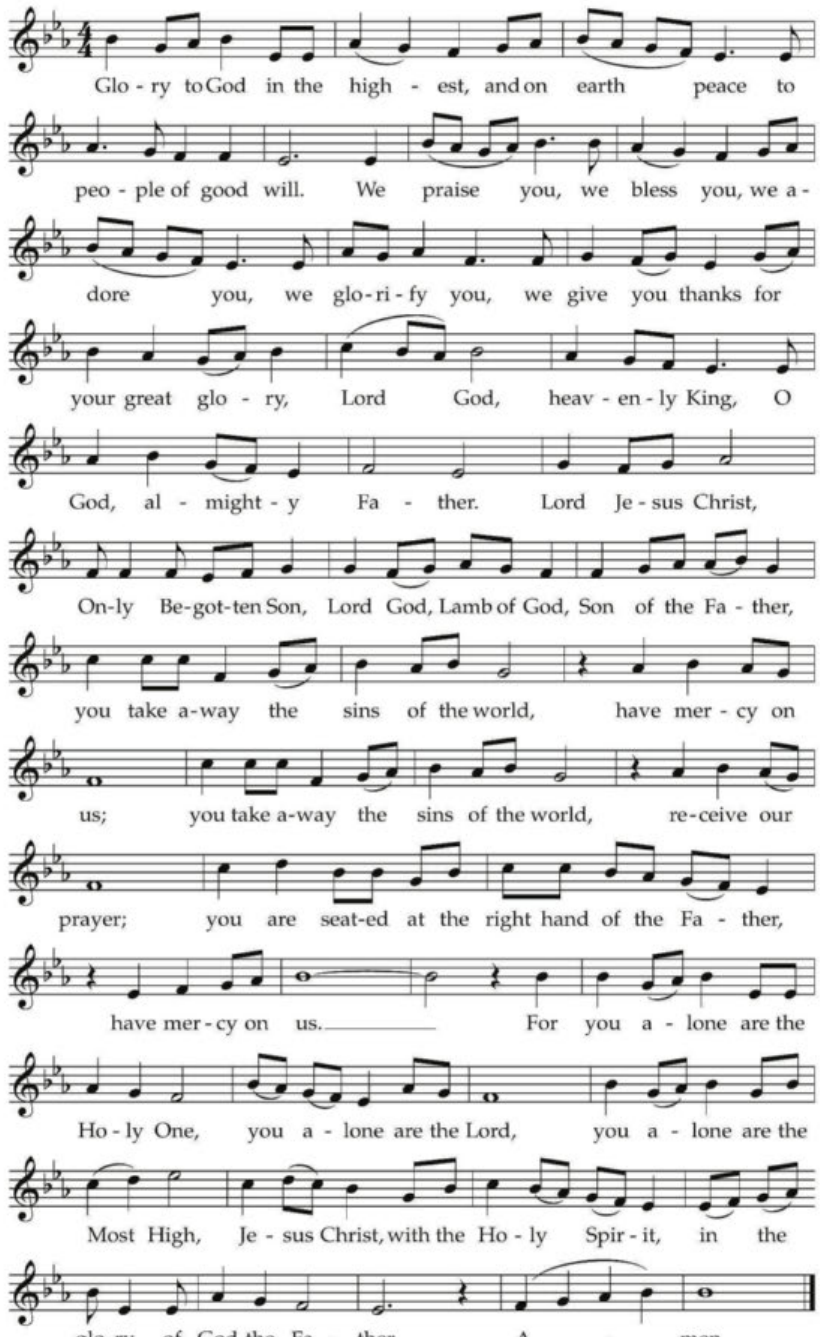
Kyrie

Gloria — Mass of Wisdom



THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading	Deuteronomy 30:10-14
Psalm 19	Your words, Lord, are spirit and life.
Second Reading	Galatians 5:1,13-18
Gospel Acclamation	Alleluia
Gospel	Luke 9:51-62
Homily

Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful Lord, Hear Our Prayer

St Joseph prayer recited at the end of the Prayer of the Faithful:

O God, Creator of all things,
who laid down for the human race the law of work, graciously grant that by the example of Saint Joseph and under his patronage,
we may complete the works you set us to do,
and attain the rewards you promise.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

We are pleased to announce that as of April, Online Giving is available for you to make electronic contributions to St. Joseph the Worker Parish. This option makes use of current technology and security standards and allows you to easily setup recurring contributions.

Benefits of Online Giving:

- Secure and confidential. No need to share payment information with the church office.
- Efficient. Set up direct withdrawals from your checking or savings account.
- Simple. Start, stop and change your contributions at any time.
- Convenient. No need to write a check or have cash available.

Start Online Giving today!

1. Visit our church website at https://sjwpitt.org and click on the Online Giving link.
2. Create an account.
3. Schedule your recurring gifts.

Online Giving is intended to be a convenient option for our parishioners.

We continue to thank you for your ongoing support through both Online Giving and Offering Envelopes for contributions to the parish.
