Faithful Chronicles
By Father Frank D. Almade

Bishop Zubik hosted the 11th Triennial Convocation of Priests, October 3—6, at the Oglebay Resort in Wheeling, West Virginia. About 160 priests, active and retired, attended, along with Bishops Waltersheid and Eckman. The theme of this year's convocation was "How Good it is for Brothers to Come Together." The emphasis was not on administration or formal education, but rather in the spirit of Pope Francis' call for a spirit of synodality that we priests talk with and listen to each other.

Bishop Zubik picked an excellent main speaker to guide us. Archbishop Bernie Hebda is the Archbishop of St. Paul and Minneapolis. He was born on the South Side of Pittsburgh and raised in the Brookline neighborhood, attending Resurrection Elementary School and Seton LaSalle High School. After he graduated from Harvard Law School, Bernie (almost all the priests know him by his familia first name) practiced law for two years in Pittsburgh before he acted on the call from God to become a priest. He studied in Rome and received a degree in Canon Law before his ordination in 1989. After pastoral assignments in our diocese, Rome came calling, and Bernie was appointed to the Congregation for Interpretation of Canon Law, where he served for 13 years. He was named Bishop of the tiny diocese of Gaylord, Michigan in 2009, and then sent to the Twin Cities in 2015.

Archbishop Hebda's talks were filled with self-deprecating humor and down-to-earth spiritual insights, which I believe were well received by the priests. After each talk, in a first for our Triennial Convocation, priests met in small groups to discuss the talk in light of their faith journey. I was a facilitator for one table, and appreciated how all seven of the priests "opened up" and were honest about themselves, their ministry and the presbyterate of our diocese.

One of the unspoken themes of this convocation is that it is hard to be a healthy and holy priest. We live in the shadow of the clergy abuse scandal and the 2018 Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report. We are challenged to implement Our Mission for the Church Alive, in which we have gone from 183 parishes (2018) to 63 parishes (today). We have weathered the unheard of the Covid pandemic and the departure of so many Catholics from actively attending Sunday Mass. Outside cultural force also impact our priestly ministry. These include selfish individualism, consumerism and our political divisions.

Our optional workshop I attended was titled "Self-Care for Priests." It was offered (via Zoom) by a veteran psychologist who has many years of working with clergy and women and men religious in therapy. She offered excellent insights into the need for all of us to balance work, prayer and self-care. She distinguished between self-care and self-indulgence. Her great respect for the challenges and possibilities of priestly ministry was uplifting to me.

This was a successful convocation for me (and I hope the other priests) because it was a "no-stress" zone. We came together to pray (morning and evening prayer, daily Mass, and evening Holy Hour), enjoy good food and drink and the company of friends in ministry. It confirms what several reputable national surveys have shown over the past decades—priests are happy, priests like being priests, priests would choose the same vocation if asked. Contrary to public (and Catholic) opinion, priests love their calling and want to share the Eucharist, the Word of God and themselves with the people they are called to serve.

Let me conclude with a commercial. If I have one regret over my 44 year journey as a priest, it is that I have seldom preached about the vocation of priesthood. I, too, am happy to be a Catholic priest. I have learned to love from my relationship with Jesus Christ, from parishioners like right here in St. Joseph the Worker Parish and from dear friends. My commercial is simple: "Come and see." If any young man has an inkling that he might or should consider a priestly vocation, come and talk with me, or Father Ken, or Father Martin or Father Cassian. Our diocese has helpful programs for discernment for young men who are considering studying for the priesthood. I'm happy to explain them and facilitate anyone signing up.

Similarly, for married or single men who may be considering a vocation as a permanent deacon, "Come and see." Talk with any of our fine deacons: Jeff, Joe, Keith and Herb or call Deacon Steve Byers, Director of the Office for the Diaconate (412-456-3124), to learn more about the formation process.

Thanks to all parishioners for allowing your priests to step aside for a few days for our convocation. Thanks to the deacons for leading Liturgies of the Word during our absence. And pray for us clergy, all priests and deacons, and growth in vocations to the priesthood, religious llife, diaconate, married life and the single life.

St. Joseph the Worker

Joseph, by the work of your hands
and the sweat of your brow,
You supported Jesus and Mary and taught Jesus your trade.
Teach me to work as you did,
With patience and perseverance,
For God and for those whom God has given me to support.
Teach me to see in my fellow workers
The presence of Christ,
That I may always be charitable.
Grant me to look upon work
With the eyes of faith,
So that I see in it my own gifts from God
As a sharing in His creative activity and take pride in it.
When it is pleasant and productive, remind me to give thanks to God for it.
And when it is burdensome,
teach me to offer it to God. AMEN

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

"Prayer is a practice, an exercise, for all times and situations, none more so than when we are being tempted by the evil one to break away from the love of God."

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY AND MISSIONARY COOPERATION PLAN COLLECTION

World Mission Sunday, our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries of the world, will be celebrated on October 23 this year. This collection is a unique, global effort for the entire Church to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy. This year, the World Mission Sunday collection will be combined with the Mission Cooperation Plan. All monies collected will be split between the missionary group and the Society for the Propagation of the Faith World Mission Sunday collection. Through this annual collection, we are invited to help support more than 1,100 mission dependent dioceses in more than half of the world. Through the work of these churches, their witness to Christ is continuing the ongoing relationship with today's missionaries. Thank you for your generosity!

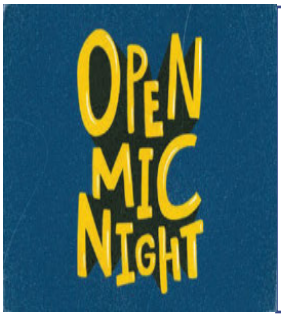
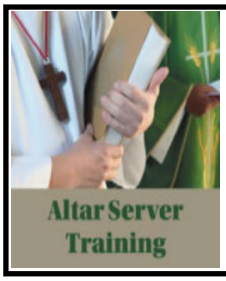
RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

CCD for grades K-5 will resume on October 23 at 8:30 am in Keane Hall. On October 30, we will celebrate All Saint's Day. Choose a Saint and dress up for class.

Beginning November 27, we will be starting a Children's Liturgy of the Word during the 10:00 am Mass at Saint Maurice Church. This will be for ages 3—7. If this program is to succeed, we will need volunteers to be trained as catechists and helpers. Please help out! More later.



Middle and high school students are invited to join us for an evening of entertainment on Sunday, October 16 at Madonna del Castello Church of St. Joseph the Worker Parish, in Dattilo Hall from 7—8:30 pm. Students are welcome to perform—it can be music, theater, comedy, or other—or to watch and support their peers perform. A menu of food and drink will be available to order from, to go, along with the performance and fellowship.



Students, grades 4 through 12, and adults are invited to become an altar server. Being an altar server is a great way to actively participate in the Mass. There will be a training session for altar servers on Thursday, October 20 from 6—7 pm at St. Maurice Church. If you or your child is interested in serving, please reach out to Dante Romito by emailing dromito@sjwpitt.org or calling 412-273-9122.

St. Joseph the Worker is blessed to have four amazing chapters of the non-profit service organization St. Vincent de Paul, working within our Parish. These good people help others in need in tremendous ways like assistance with food, clothing, furniture and daily living throughout the boroughs that our Parish serves. The second collections that our Parish holds throughout the year, directly benefits each chapter and it is through your financial generosity that they can do the work that they need to do to help others. Just a reminder, we will have a second collection for St. Vincent de Paul on the weekend of October 30. Each chapter has volunteers who selflessly give their time, talents and treasures to help those in need. We thank you all for your invaluable help to those in our communities. We would also like to congratulate in a special way, our Vincentians who are celebrating service milestone anniversaries within the St. Vincent de Paul organization…

5 Years: Gerry Barrett and Jeanine Saunders
10 Years: Linda Probola, Marie Capezzuto, Betsy Tomko and John Bonacci
15 Years: Penny Antolovich
20 Years: Martin Dombrowski, Patty and Sonny Cheripka

These faithful volunteers and many others tirelessly help local families in need by restoring hope and dignity. If you are interested in helping others within our communities by becoming a member of St. Vincent de Paul, please reach out to one of our St. Vincent de Paul Chapter Presidents: Sonny Cheripka, Jeanine Saunders, Jack Onufer and Dave Joscak through the Parish Office at 412-271-0809. We congratulate and thank all of our chapter Vincentians. May God continue to bless you and your ministries.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT OUR PARISH?

SEPTEMBER 28— NOVEMBER 6

Planting seeds make a difference. Our work in HIS vineyard is to plant seeds; seeds of Hope and Love. Just showing up along with our prayers plant seeds. How many cars just keep going? How many couples turn around when they see us at a distance? How many women come out without letting us know why? All we need is the faith of a mustard seed, do our part and just show up; God will do the rest.

The "harvest is abundant, and laborers are few".
Please join us in the vineyard and bring a friend.

Wednesday, October 19, 1—3 pm will be St. Joseph the Worker's vigil time. For those unable to participate at this time slot, or another time of your choosing, please consider being a prayer warrior. Praying and fasting for the Sidewalk Advocates, for the women and men contemplating abortion, and especially for the precious little ones that do not have a voice.

RETREAT AT ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS

Men, are you feeling that the pressures of daily life are distracting you from more earnestly seeking a deeper relationship with God? Or, do you need quiet time with the Lord? Then please consider joining us for a religious retreat at St. Paul of the Cross the weekend of November 11-13, 2022. For over 100 years, St. Paul's has offered men and women, from Pittsburgh and the Tri-state region, the opportunity to attend retreats to deepen one's relationship with God. As we, hopefully, put the pandemic behind us, the theme of this year's retreat is "A Place for New Beginnings." THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

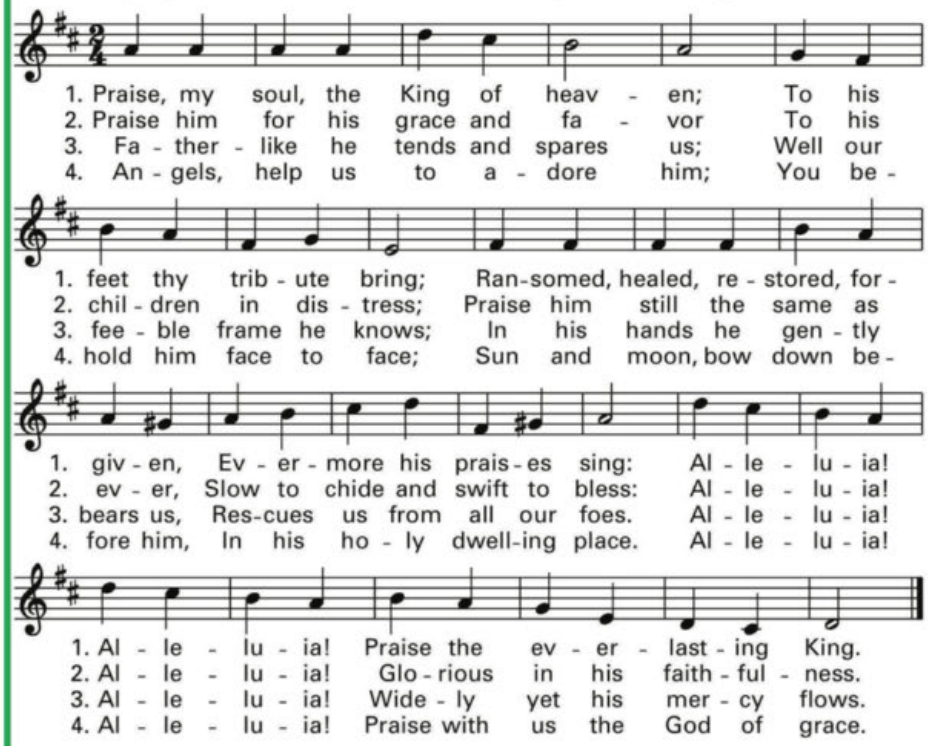
Gathering Hymn — Praise My Soul the King of Heaven



Text: 8 7 8 7 8 7; based on Psalm 103; Henry F. Lyle, 1793-1847, alt. Music: John Goss, 1800-1880.

Sign of the Cross

Greeting

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you,
my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Homily

Profession of Faith Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful Lord, Hear Our Prayer

St Joseph the Worker Prayer

O God, Creator of all things, who laid down for the human race the law of work, graciously grant that by the example of Saint Joseph and under his patronage,
we may complete the works you set us to do,
and attain the rewards you promise.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen
