

Queen of Peace School 2025-26 School Board Bios

Evan Speicher, President

Evan has been with Instrumental Machine and Development (IMD) since 2011. Beginning in the Shipping and Assembly Department, Evan effectively worked his way through Customer Service and now holds the position of President. Before working at IMD, Evan attended Indiana University, Bloomington and completed a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science. Following graduation, he worked at Bloomington Hospital in their Cardiac Rehabilitation Unit assisting patients through their post-surgery recovery. Additionally, he was an educator for patients in the Congestive Heart Failure unit. With a background in kinesiology and a desire to return to Northern Indiana, Evan made a committed decision to call IMD home. While at Indiana University, he served as a Director on the Student Athletic Board for both the Women's Basketball and Water Polo teams. Additionally, he held an executive position as Board Treasurer. Evan is a 2016 graduate of Kosciusko Leadership Academy, and in 2021, Kosciusko Economic Development recognized him with a "Rising Leader Award." Evan is also a member of Queen of Peace. Evan and his wife, Jaci, have two young sons, Jack (5) and Gio (3). He is an avid sports fan and loves the Cubs and Hoosiers.

Kathryn Vidrine, Vice President

Kathryn Vidrine hails originally from Massachusetts, and moved to Indiana following several years in Canada to pursue her PhD in History at Notre Dame. She has worked at ND in academic administration since finishing her degree in 2018. That was also the year that she and her husband Michael moved to the Twin Branch neighborhood and became parishioners at Queen of Peace. She was immediately taken with the small, friendly community at the church and the beautiful art on display throughout the school. Her oldest child began preschool at Queen of Peace at age 3, and currently 2 of the 4 Vidrine kids attend full-time. She is excited to bring her varied experiences of education and administration to her role as Vice President of the School Board this year to help Queen of Peace school, parish, and community reach their fullest potential.

Mike Dabler, Secretary

He is employed as an IT premedia manager for a commercial printing facility in Elkhart at Lithotone Inc. for 31 years. He and Colleen are the proud parents of four wonderful children. Jack, currently attending Purdue, Katharine and Elizabeth are attending Marian high school this year and Josephina is a 6th grade student at Queen of Peace. The Dablers have been parishioners since 2003 and love their Queen of Peace community. Mike has been a member of several Christ Renews His Parish teams including the Mission team to Saint Jude's. He also enjoys coaching and assistant coaching the children's sports teams. Mike looks forward to helping on the school board and wherever he is needed for the 2025-2026 school year. A fun fact about his family is that his wife Colleen is an amazing athlete and has run 27 marathons and counting, impressively qualifying for the Boston Marathon each time.

Tiffany Yates, HASA Vice President

Tiffany Yates was born and raised in Osceola, IN and grew up in Queen of Peace Parish where she was an altar server, RE teacher, cantor, part of the adult choir, cheerleader, and volunteer for several parish events. Tiffany went on to receive a double Bachelor of Arts degree in Pre-Dance Therapy and Psychology from Meredith College in Raleigh, NC and served on the Meredith Catholic Angels - Catholic Campus Ministry Leadership Team in several roles throughout her time on campus. Tiffany received her Master of Science degree from Capella University in Marriage and Family Therapy in 2016 and has been a practicing Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist for 9 years. She is currently a partner and Clinical Supervisor at Recore Counseling, LLC in Mishawaka. Tiffany has been married to her high school sweetheart, Michael, whom she met at Queen of Peace Parish, for 13 years and they have two beautiful daughters, Lillian (6) and Nora (1.5). Lillian will be a first grader at Queen of Peace School this Fall. In her spare time, Tiffany teaches tap at Legacy Dance Studio, and enjoys being at home with her husband and daughters. She is looking forward to serving Queen of Peace in this new role and helping mold the next generation of Queen of Peace students.

Anastasia Glassburn, At Large Member

Anastasia is a parishioner of Queen of Peace who grew up in Granger and graduated from Penn High School in 2002. She now resides in Elkhart with her husband and seven children: Ella (18), James (17), Audrey (15), David (10), Frances (8), Harriet (5), and Magdalena (5 months). Ella attends Belmont University in Nashville, TN and James and Audrey are students at Marian. David, Frances, and Harriet attend St. Thomas More Academy in South Bend. Harriet is a recent preschool graduate of Queen of Peace. Anastasia is a registered nurse who spent her entire career in women's health working in labor and delivery and postpartum. However, she recently left bedside nursing to stay home full time with her children. Prior to becoming an RN, she earned a bachelor's degree from Ball State University in theatrical studies and acting. Anastasia is passionate about the arts and remains a patron of local community theaters. She currently helps coach STMA's national qualifying speech and debate team, and when she does get a rare moment of spare time, she enjoys cooking Greek food, baking, gardening, and is an avid reader and lover of books!
