The event of Fatima

The secret offered in Fatima is precisely a revelation of the human mystery under God's light. In the images that flow before the eyes of Jacinta, Francisco and Lucia, a synthesis of the difficult drama of human freedom is offered. The vision of hell becomes memorial of the fact that history unfolds over other horizons, more definitive than the present, and that God yearns so much for that eschatological encounter in which the person is recovered for love, as he values human freedom. The same for the vision of the Church that, headed by the bishop dressed in white, walks through the ruins of the great city, carrying its suffering and its prayer, to prostrate, at the end, before the Cross: this vision evokes the human history suffocated in the ruins of its confrontations and its egoisms, and a Church that carries those ruins, as a via cruce, to ultimately offer herself to God completely, before the Cross – symbol of the ultimate and definitive gift of God himself. This Church is the seed of a different way of life full of grace, at the image of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The heart of the one who consecrates himself to God is made immaculate by his mercy and, in this way, anointed for a mission. The secret offered in Fatima is the revelation of faith that, at the end, this Immaculate Heart full of grace shall triumph.

The believing style of the Immaculate Heart is offered as prayer and as sacrifice.

The Lady of the Rosary insistently convokes the seers to prayer, that place of encounter in which their intimacy with God will grow. The concrete traits of the prayer asked in Fatima are the ones of the rosary, which is remembered by Our Lady in each of the six apparitions, with the tone of urgency. In this humble pedagogy of the prayerful faith, the believer is convoked to welcome the mysteries of the higher gift of Christ in his/her heart, and to let him/herself be questioned by God's love, which redeems all wounds of human freedom. That the rosary being indicated as a way to peace is just a sign that the welcoming of the Word fills with grace the human heart, captive of egoism and violence, and pacifies history with the courage of those who are humble.

The intimacy with God transforms life into a sacrifice for the brethren, particularly those under God's compassionate gaze. Self-gift: here is the meaning of sacrifice. Loved as a child, the human heart is made new at the image of the Father and takes on the Father's passion for humanity. Before the world dramas, a freedom centered in God commits to his plans of mercy that include every woman, every man, in the Son's reconciliatory mission of gathering all in one sheep-fold (Jo 10,16). In the difficult grammar of sacrifice, life is courageously taken in its truth and freedom is polished for self-gift. (To be Continued)

Mother's Day Cards

Mothers day Cards are still available at the entrance of the Church and Chapel for those who may be a little late. Let us remember in our prayers those who have been mothers to us in many different ways during our lives—whether they be living or deceased. God will always bless those who honor their parents.

“The Most Holy Mother of God prays for us ceaselessly. She is always visiting us. Whenever we turn to her in our heart, she is there. After the Lord, she is the greatest protection for mankind. How many churches there are in the world that are dedicated to the Most Holy Mother of God! How many healing springs where people are cured of their ailments have sprung up in places where the Most Holy Theotokos appeared and blessed those springs to heal both the sick and the healthy! She is constantly, by our side, and all too often we forget her.” + Elder Thaddeus

No Mary, No Jesus—Know Mary, Know Jesus

"To know Jesus Christ and his love causes us to want to share that knowledge and love with everyone we meet" (Archbishop Jose Horacio Gomez, You Will Be My Witnesses).

If Mary had not said yes to the angel Gabriel, there would have been no Incarnation of Jesus. Thanks be to God, she cooperated with His grace, but it was truly her free choice. That is why we can say, "No Mary, no Jesus." Through her Yes to God, Mary became the human being closest to the Blessed Trinity: the Beloved Daughter of God the Father; the Most Chaste Spouse of God the Holy Spirit; and the Blessed Mother of God the Son. Catholic Christians know that one of the best ways to stay close to Jesus is through the powerful intercession of the one who knew Him best. And so we say not only, "No Mary, no Jesus", but also, "Know Mary, know Jesus." If we imitate Mary in her obedience, her love, and especially her willingness to serve and to share Jesus with the world, we can hope to join her and her Divine Son in heaven. In this way Mary continues to evangelize us. We in turn, evangelize others. As Schott Hahn once said, "Evangelism is not complete until the evangelized become evangelists." (Excerpted from "How to Share Your Faith With Anyone" by Terry Barber. Available for FREE on FORMED!)

Our parish evangelization team usually meets on the second and fourth Saturday of each month from 10:30 am to noon in the rectory. Our next scheduled meeting is tentatively scheduled for June 8th.

"The future will be resplendent, and an untold number of souls will be saved, but on one condition: that your sons be devoted to the Blessed Virgin." + St. Dominic Savio

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
