Parish Center: Our Dream

Last week in the bulletin you found copies of the much revised schemata for our future parish hall. Please remember that we already have in writing from the Fiscal Office of the Diocese the necessary permission to move ahead with this. Already last week I met with gentlemen from several asbestos abatement companies and some donors who are coming forward of their own accord.

Other basic and necessary estimates will be obtained for the project. Those who met when we first began talking about the need for a public space will be called for a meeting within the next few weeks.

I have become convinced that this will aid us greatly in parish growth and the stabilization of existing members. I do not know if now is the right time—I believe that it is the necessary time. Please direct any questions concerning the plans to Fr. Joseph.

Ways to help Holy Name:

- ❖ Don't forget we have "On Line Giving" through the Parish website!
- ❖ Amazon Smile—Make Holy Name your charity with Amazon Smile and it costs you nothing!
- ❖ Contribute towards a specific project in the Church or Rectory:
 - ⌘ Parish Center
 - ⌘ Altar Floor in the Church
 - ⌘ Future repair of the Church Organ
 - ⌘ Future repair of the Stained Glass Windows

Who Was Saint Joseph?

Venerated as a saint, St. Joseph is a biblical figure who is believed to have been the adoptive father of Jesus Christ. Joseph first appears in the Bible in the gospels of Matthew and Luke; in Matthew, Joseph's lineage is traced back to King David. According to the Bible, Joseph was born circa 100 B.C. and later wed the Virgin Mary, Jesus's mother. He died in Israel circa 1 A.D.

Fact and Fiction

Everything we know about Saint Joseph, the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus, comes from the Bible, and mentions of him are underwhelming. The 13 New Testament books written by Paul (the epistles) make no reference to him at all, nor does the Gospel of Mark. Joseph first appears in the Bible in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, one of which (Matthew) traces Joseph's lineage back to King David.

To add to the problem of not knowing enough about Joseph, some apocryphal writings—such as the second-century Protevangelium of James and the fourth-century History of Joseph the Carpenter—muddy the historical waters further, presenting him as a widower with children when he met Mary and claiming that he lived to the age of 111. These claims, however, are not universally accepted by the church.

Marriage to Mary

After the betrothal with Mary, Joseph found that she was already pregnant, and being "a just man and unwilling to put her to shame" (Matt. 1:19), he decided to divorce her quietly, knowing that if he did so publicly, she could be stoned to death. An angel, however, came to Joseph in a dream and told him that the child Mary carried was the Son of God and was conceived by the Holy Spirit, so Joseph took Mary into his home.

After Jesus's birth in Bethlehem, an angel came to Joseph again, this time to warn him and Mary about King Herod and the violence he would bring down upon the child. Joseph then fled to Egypt with Mary and Jesus. The angel appeared again later, telling Joseph that Herod had died and instructing him to return to the Holy Land.

Avoiding Bethlehem and possible actions by Herod's successor, Joseph, Mary and Jesus settled in Nazareth, in Galilee. The Gospels describe Joseph as a "tekton," which traditionally has meant "carpenter," and it is assumed that Joseph taught his craft to Jesus in Nazareth. At this point, however, Joseph is never mentioned again by name in the Bible—although the story of Jesus in the temple includes a reference to "both his parents."

Death and Sainthood

The circumstances of Joseph's death are not known, but it is likely that he died before Jesus's ministry began, and it is implied that he was dead before the Crucifixion (John 19:26-27). Already a patron saint of Mexico, Canada and Belgium, in 1870, Joseph was declared patron of the universal church by Pope Pius IX, and in 1955 Pope Pius XII established May 1 as the "Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker" to counter the Communists' May Day.

Welcome to Holy Name!!!

Welcome! If you like what you see, hear, and smell (Ahh, the incense) At Holy Name, please consider joining the Parish. Registration in the Parish has its benefits. Those who need sponsor certificates to be Godparents or desire to receive the Sacraments must be active and registered members of a Parish. It is important that we have dedicated members helping with and supporting the Mission of the Church. If you are interested or have some questions please fill out this form, drop it in the collection basket, and someone will get in contact with you.

Fasting and Abstinence during Lent

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

Catechism Reminders!!!

TIMES:
DROP OFF & PICK-UP
 Parents are reminded to be punctual in dropping off and picking up their children from Catechism.

A special vote of confidence goes to the Confirmation students who are keeping their promise to complete their classes this year. So far they are doing very well!!!

First Communion children and Confirmation students should not forget to sign the books at the entrance of the Church or the Chapel when they come to Mass on the weekend.

Check back often!

The Friends of Fatima continue to meet on the first Saturday of the month. We attend mass at 8am and then the girls participate in CCD. After CCD we stay for breakfast and our art project.

This year we are going to center our time together on a different Christian virtue every month. If you are interested in joining us or trying out a session, please contact Thamara Davis at 401.663.5590.

Young Menz Group

Our meetings begin with the 8 am Mass on the First Saturday, followed by confession, the holy rosary, and breakfast at the Rectory.
