Do not forsake prayer, for just as the body becomes weak when it is deprived of food, so also the soul when it is deprived of prayer draws nigh to weakness and noetic death. +St. Gennadius of Constantinople

Some Forgotten Memories From Those Who Have Gone Before Us

George Washington: 1st U.S. President "While we are zealously performing the duties of good citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion. To the distinguished character of Patriot, it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished character of Christian."

John Adams: 2nd U.S. President and Signer of the Declaration of Independence "Suppose a nation in some distant Region should take the Bible for their only law Book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited! Every member would be obliged in conscience, to temperance, frugality, and industry; to justice, kindness, and charity towards his fellow men; and to piety, love, and reverence toward Almighty God ... What a Eutopia, what a Paradise would this region be."

Thomas Jefferson: 3rd U.S. President, Drafter and Signer of the Declaration of Independence "God who gave us life gave us liberty. And can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the Gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with His wrath? Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever..."

Samuel Adams: Signer of the Declaration of Independence and Father of the American Revolution "And as it is our duty to extend our wishes to the happiness of the great family of man, I conceive that we cannot better express ourselves than by humbly supplicating the Supreme Ruler of the world that the rod of tyrants may be broken to pieces, and the oppressed made free again; that wars may cease in all the earth, and that the confusions that are and have been among nations may be overruled by promoting and speedily bringing on that holy and happy period when the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be everywhere established, and all people everywhere willingly bow to the sceptre of Him who is Prince of Peace."

Patrick Henry: Ratifier of the U.S. Constitution "It cannot be emphasized too strongly or too often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians; not on religions, but on the gospel of Jesus Christ. For this very reason peoples of other faiths have been afforded asylum, prosperity, and freedom of worship here."

"How mistaken are those people who seek happiness outside of themselves, in foreign lands and journeys, in riches and glory, in great possessions and pleasures, in diversions and vain things, which have a bitter end! In the same thing to construct the tower of happiness outside of ourselves as it is to build a house in a place that is consistently shaken by earthquakes. Happiness is found within ourselves, and blessed is the man who has understood this. Happiness is a pure heart, for such a heart becomes the throne of God. Thus says Christ of those who have pure hearts: "I will visit them, and will walk in them, and I will be a God to them, and they will be my people." (II Cor. 6:16) What can be lacking to them? Nothing, nothing at all! For they have the greatest good in their hearts: God Himself!" +St. Nektarios of Aegina,

The Holy Spirit Makes the Difference

The year 2020 began just like every other year- without any out of the ordinary drama. Well, not until sometime in February when we began to hear of a certain COVID-19 that in a reckless crescendo swept over the face of the universe, dealing fatal blows to its victims and creating global panic. Before we knew it, this hydra-headed monster forced us all into our cocoons of trepidation and utter confusion. As if that wasn't enough, our Church bells went mute and our noses rather than enjoying the sweet fragrance of incense that emanated from our thuribles quickly adjusted to the near new norm of separating Oxygen from CO₂. For us here in Providence, our Churches have been under lock and key for about 10 weeks now!

But not anymore! Yes, on the vigil of Pentecost, our Churches will be re-opened and public Masses will once again be celebrated! Yes, the Holy Spirit makes the difference. Yes, starting from this weekend, we will be able to gather in our beautiful Churches again to celebrate and bask in the glow of the Holy Spirit. And as we gather, we can be sure of one thing: the Holy Spirit will hover over our Churches, to comfort, renew, sanctify, and vivify us. Indeed, it is in the character of the Holy Spirit to sanctify and vivify. The Church's existence today bears witness to this reality. As St. Augustine says: "what the soul is in our body, that is the Holy Ghost in Christ's body, the Church." This teaching was re-echoed by Pope Leo XIII when he said: "as Christ is the Head of the Church, so is the Holy Ghost her soul."

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, as we commemorate the feast of the Holy Spirit, let us radiate with Joy for He, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity has come to bring us new life. COVID-19 can never have the last say, because although "weeping may last for the night, JOY comes with the Morning" (Psalm 30:5). May the Holy Spirit restore unto us the joy of our salvation and renew the face of the earth once more.

Fr. Lazarus Onuh

The soul that loves God has its rest in God and in God alone. In all the paths that men walk in in the world, they do not attain peace until they draw nigh to hope in God. +St. Isaac the Syrian
