Pastors Note ~ 5th Sunday of Easter

God is Love. Love is expressed in joy. So it's time for some religious humor. Because Jesus saves...

About Scripture Reading An old lady was on a flight. She was sitting beside a young businessman. After the in-flight meal she took out her Holy Bible and starts her devotion. The businessman glances at her and said. Do you really believe that stuff in the Bible is true? "Well, yes, as a matter of fact I do," said the old lady. "Yeah, right..." the man scoffs, "like... what's that guy's name, the one who got swallowed by a whale..." "You mean Jonah?" "Yeah, Jonah, I mean, how do you actually survive for 3 days in a fish's bowel?" "I don't know," replied the old lady, "but I can ask him when I see him in heaven someday." Feeling smart, the young man said: "Ok, but what if he's not in heaven because he went to hell?" "Then young man, you can ask him" replied the old lady calmly.

About God's Grace A man died and approached the Pearly Gates. St. Peter told him heaven was getting crowded so he had to test people with the point system. If he got to 100 points he could enter. The man told Peter that he gave to the poor. Peter marked him down for 3 points. The man thought again, then said that he tithed. Peter added one point. The man, desperately searching his memory, finally said that he never cussed. Peter added 1/2 a point. By now the man got very frustrated and said that at this rate he could only get in by the grace of God. Peter replied, "Come on in!"

About Dieting An 85 year old couple, having been married almost 60 years, die in a car crash. They had been in good health the last ten years, mainly due to the wife's interest in health food. When they reached the pearly gates, St. Peter took them to their mansion, which was decked out with a beautiful kitchen and master bath suite with Jacuzzi. As they "oohed and aahed", the old man asked Peter how much all this was going to cost. "It's free," Peter replied, Remember, this is Heaven."

Next they went out back to see the championship golf course the home backed up to. They would have golfing privileges every day, and each week the course changed to a new one representing the great golf courses on Earth. The old man asked, "What are the green fees?" "This is heaven," St. Peter replied. "You play for free." Next they went to the clubhouse and saw the lavish buffet lunch with the cuisine's of the world laid out. "How much to eat?" asked the old man. "Don't you understand yet?" St. Peter asked. "This is heaven. It's free!" "Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol foods?" the old man asked timidly. "That's the best part...you can eat as much as you like of whatever you like and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is Heaven." The old man looked at his wife and said, "You and your stupid bran muffins. I could have been here ten years ago!"

About Aging A little girl was sitting on her grandfather's lap as he read her a bedtime story. From time to time, she would take her eyes off the book and reach up to touch his wrinkled cheek. She was alternately stroking her own cheek, then his again. Finally she spoke up, "Grandpa, did God make you?" "Yes, sweetheart," he answered, "God made me a long time ago." "Oh," she paused, "grandpa, did God make me too?" "Yes, indeed, honey," he said, "God made you just a little while ago." Feeling their respective faces again, she observed, "God's getting better at it, isn't he?"

The Commandments A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor thy father and thy mother," she asked "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?" Without missing a beat one little boy answered, "Thou shall not kill."

Children's Prayers to Dear God This is my prayer. Could you please give my brother some brains. So far he doesn't have any. Angela, 8 ...Please help me in school. I need help in spelling, adding, history, geography and writing. I don't need help in anything else. Lois, 9 ...I need a raise in my allowance. Could you have one of your angels tell my father. Thank you. David, 7 ...I am saying my prayers for me and my brother, Billy, because Billy is six months old and he can't do anything but sleep and wet his diapers. Diane, 8

Stewardship ~ 5th Sunday of Easter

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34) It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes strength and courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone that doesn't look like me.

St. Vincent de Paul

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul was founded in 1833 in Paris by Frédéric Ozanam. As a college student, Ozanam and his companions were moved by the plight of the poor and challenged to put their Catholic faith into action. They adopted St. Vincent de Paul as the Society's patron because he cared for the poor, forgotten and downtrodden of Paris. The first SVdP presence in the U.S. was established in 1845 in St. Louis, Mo., where the headquarters remains. U.S. membership totals nearly 100,000 in 4,400 communities. To learn more about SVdP, please visit www.svdpusa.org

Thanks to the generous donations and prayers from parishioners, St. Henry's St. Vincent de Paul has been working hard to provide Food, Rent and Utilities assistance to those in need. During the month of April $2,595 alone was spent for utility and rent assistance. These payments helped to keep 15 families warm and in their homes and off the streets. Another 951 individuals were supplied with food from our pantry. Unlike some pantries the families were able to choose from an assortment of the food provided.

But it isn't all about the food and the money. As we serve those that come to our door members grow in faith, compassion, concern and friendship and eventually seeing the face of God.
