~ Pastors Note ~

“To serve or not to serve, that is not the question.”

Dear God, It seems like sibling rivalry is what’s going on in today’s gospel about Martha and Mary. Did Jesus side with one over the other? If so, doesn’t this make Jesus to be an ungrateful guest? Signed, A Bit Flummoxed

Dear AB Flummoxed, Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” Jesus said to her in reply, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.

There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.”

Sibling rivalry is universal, and often one of the siblings implores a trusted friend to resolve the dispute.

Such is the case in today’s Gospel. Martha and Mary have radically different definitions of hospitality. For Martha, hospitality demands service, while Mary defines hospitality as presence. In practice, these two definitions look very different and are bound to cause conflict. Martha clearly felt in the right and asked Jesus to demand that Mary get up and help. Jesus saw the teachable moment and delivered a lesson that has sparked debate throughout the centuries. He clearly sided with Mary’s choice of presence, chiding Martha about her anxious and worried nature.

In today’s Gospel, Martha is described as anxious and worried; other translations of the Gospel describe her as distracted. Clearly Martha was not focused on her guest but rather on the tasks at hand. Perhaps it is not what she is doing but rather how she is doing it that is up for debate.

What does the story of Martha and Mary teach you? Before you focus on service, you must focus on ME. Once you know and love the Savior, then your service rises up from a holy place within you. Yes, you are called to serve, that is your vocation, but only after you have truly met with Jesus and focused on him. To serve or not to serve: That is not the question. And, yes, this might well be a model for how to deal with sibling rivalries and family tension.

Signed, Your Loving and Caring God

Worship the Lord

Stewardship ~ July 21, 2019 - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” (Colossians 1:25)

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Vincentian Meditation

Jesus was not only compassionate with his heart, but he was compassionate also with his hands, and he willed that the compassion should reach the people until the end of time. There are millions who watch pictures of poverty on our television screens and feel generous towards the poor. Their reaction, so often goes no further than feeling. Vincentians, however, imitate Jesus in that they are not content to feel generous; they show their generosity by being a sign of God’s love, a sign of God’s generosity, and a sign of God’s service, of his service in a special way to the poor. The most unfortunate people in society are those who have not had the experience of being loved. Before loving others, we must come to the realization that we are at every moment of our lives being loved by God. (McCullen, Deep Down Things, p. 669)

Come and join us at St. Vincent de Paul and be a sign of Gods generosity and service in a special way to the poor. Contact the office, to volunteer.

21 de julio de 2019 - 16° domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"... Soy un ministro de acuerdo con la corresponsabilidad de Dios que se me ha dado para que complete la palabra de Dios para ustedes". (COLOSENSES 1:25) Todos estamos llamados a evangelizar, a crecer continuamente en nuestra relación con Jesús y a compartirla con los demás. Puede que no seamos llamados a evangelizar como San Pablo, pero debemos buscar oportunidades para compartir nuestra fe con los más cercanos a nosotros, como nuestra familia, amigos y vecinos. Ora para tener el valor de compartir tu fe la próxima vez que surja la oportunidad.

Meditación Vicentina

Jesús no solamente fue compasivo de corazón, pero también con sus manos, y quiso que esa compasión llegara a la gente hasta el fin del tiempo. Hay millones que ven las imagines de pobreza en las pantallas de televisión y se sienten generosos hacia los pobres. Su reacción muy seguido no llega más allá que a ese sentimiento. Vicentinos, sin embargo, imitan a Jesús en el no sentirse solamente generosos, pero en enseñar su generosidad en siendo una señal del amor de Dios, señal de la generosidad de Dios y signo del servicio de Dios, de Su servicio en manera especial al pobre. Los más desafortunados en la sociedad son aquellos que no han experimentado ser amados. Antes de amar a otros, tenemos que llegar a la realización que estamos en cada momento de nuestras vidas siendo amados por Dios. (McCullen Cosas Profundas)

El Centinela

El Centinela, es el periódico mensual de la Arquidiócesis de Portland, fundado hace 20 años, gracias al esfuerzo de Oregon Catholic Press y al legado del Catholic Sentinel, periódico que ha informado por más de 100 años a la comunidad católica del oeste de los Estados Unidos. El Centinela ha ganado el reconocimiento de la Asociación de Prensa Católica de los Estados Unidos, por su calidad periodística en español, hecho que lo proyecta como un medio de comunicación líder en esta parte del país. Departamento de Ministerios Pastorales en la Arquidiócesis de Portland!

Nuestro departamento existe para proporcionar apoyo a la gente del oeste de Oregon mientras respondamos juntos al llamado de Dios a la caridad y al discipulado. Esta verdad del Evangelio se toca a cada rincón de la cultura y de la vida, así que nuestro ministerio debe reflejar las mismas realidades dinámicas. No importa su origen, es seguro que cada persona lleva a la Iglesia sus propios tesoros y talentos. El Departamento de Ministros Pastorales está dedicado a esta tarea de llevar el pueblo de Dios al encuentro personal con Jesucristo, mientras equipamos ambas personas y a las parroquias a llevar a cabo el llamado del Señor: "ir, y haced discipulos a todas las naciones" (Mateo 28:19).
