A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

Holy Hour Bilingual Adoration

of the Blessed Sacrament November 27 @ 7pm
 Come join your fellow parishioners for an hour of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Church.

~ Pastor's Note ~ 32nd Sunday 2021

Eventually all children will begin asking their parents the big questions, "why", or "how come". A young lad, when told by his mother to go and wash his hands, asked "why?". She told him, "because of germs." He was heard to say on his way to the sink, "Santa Claus, Jesus, and germs, that's all they talk about and I've never seen any of them".

The people of Israel ask Moses the big question about why they must keep these laws and customs. Moses gives a brief historical reason which is the reality of the first Passover, forming a covenant people. Then Moses says that the keeping will make for happiness forever in the land they had received after their being freed from slavery in Egypt. Shema Israel: Hear O Israel, You shall love the Lord with your whole heart, whole mind and whole soul." Jesus added something to that prayer, a part of another verse from another book of the Hebrew Bible. From Leviticus 19:18, Jesus added: "and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

After our listening to the string of requirements, about loving this One God with all one's mind, heart, soul, and strength, we are left to ponder. What does that mean to love God? If we could do this, then it would not appear to be as demanding as that of loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. Mother Teresa was correct. She said you can speak the Gospels in five words: "You do it for me." (Mt 25:40) People used to ask Mother Theresa why she cared for the poor, dying on the streets. They would point out to her that these people weren't even Christian. Her response was, "How can you love God and not care for his image?" To this we can add, "We don't help others according to whether they are Catholic or not. We help them because we are Catholic."

If you neglect your love to your neighbor, in vain you profess your love to God; for it is by your love of God, the love your neighbor is born and by love to your neighbor, your love to God. is nourished. Francis Quarles

On her 100th birthday I asked my dear friend, Helen: "What is the difference between being 90 and being 100 years old?" Response: "When I was 90 and headed down the basement, as I came to the last step, I wondered why I went there. When I am 100 and heading down to the basement, I wondered whether I am going down or coming up." Do you ever feel like you don't know if you are coming or going? Well, sometimes, I get so busy that I have to make a priority list and then ask myself what I've done or not done. I guess that is normal for all of us as we go about our daily chores. But it is not normal or acceptable if we don't know if we are coming or going in our relationship with God.

We are to direct our hearts to that place where the Lord is present, and protect our hearts from any love where the Lord cannot be found. So many times people have said to me that they feel torn apart inside. Most of the time this is because they are in a relationship that destroys their integrity, a relationship where God is not found.

We are to direct our minds to the Lord. Our faith is not a matter of children's stories. If we don't allow our minds to grow with an adult understanding of our faith, then we lack the tools to integrate our faith with our lives. We are to give God our whole bodies, all our strength. Like St. Christopher, the strength we have been given is to serve God and his people. God wants all of our souls. Let us give the Lord our undivided attention – and our presence.

Veteran's Day

"In a world marked by a violence justified by lack of understanding, individual desire, or any desire to break through barriers with love and understanding, we are invited to look at our veterans and honor their witness to love. These men and women are no lovers of violence but rather of courage, people with a strong desire to love taking the form of a readiness to die." G.K. Chesterton

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini | Feast Day November 13

You may recognize the name St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850 – 1917) as the first United States citizen to become a saint. Known for her deep trust in God, she was a courageous woman doing the work of Christ.

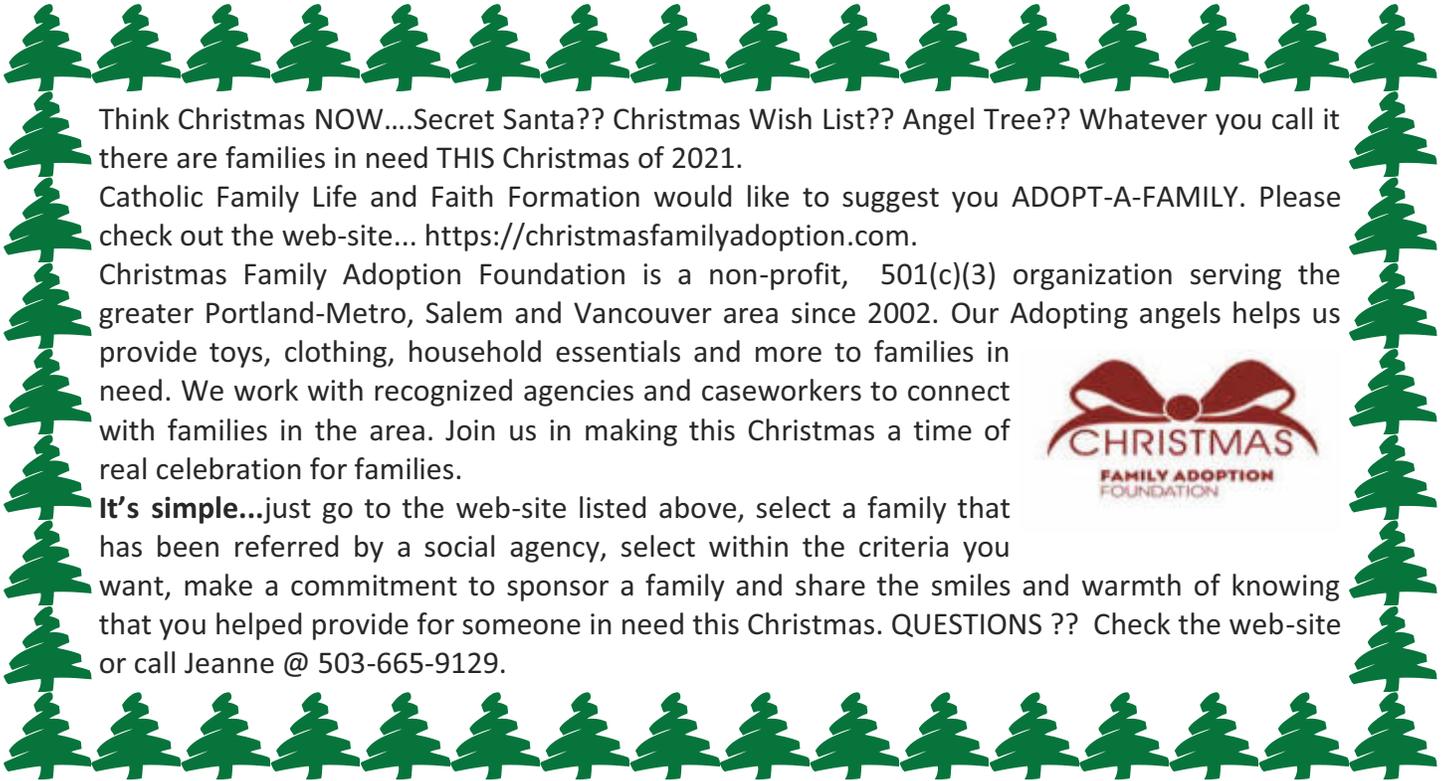

Her life of service began when she was first refused admission to the religious order which had educated her to be a teacher. Not one to take things face value, she instead focused her charitable work at the House of Providence Orphanage in Cadogno, Italy, and in 1877, professed vows there and took the religious habit.

When the bishop closed the orphanage in 1880, he named St. Frances Xavier Cabrini prioress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. However, she had a dream she was determined to fulfill. Since her early childhood, she had dreamed of being a missionary in China. Pope Leo XIII, however, urged her to see the need in the west. She traveled with six of her fellow religious sisters to New York City, where they worked with the thousands of Italian immigrants residing there.

Although she experienced many disappointments during this time, she persevered. When she arrived in New York, the house intended to be her first orphanage in the United States was not available. Rather than come back to Italy and the order she oversaw, she instead found a way to establish that orphanage elsewhere — plus a few more. Throughout her life, she is known for founding 67 institutions dedicated to caring for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated, and the sick. She died of malaria in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1917.

Donations must be made through December 31, 2021 to be eligible.

On December 10, 1979, a very petite holy woman known as Mother Teresa of Calcutta spoke these words in her Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech, "But I am sure in the families and many of our homes, maybe we are not hungry for a piece of bread, but maybe there is somebody there in the family who is unwanted, unloved, uncared, forgotten, there isn't love. Love begins at home. And love to be true has to hurt. I never forget a little child who taught me a very beautiful lesson. They heard in Calcutta, the children, that Mother Teresa had no sugar for her children, and this little one, Hindu boy four years old, he went home and he told his parents: I will not eat sugar for three days, I will give my sugar to Mother Teresa. How much a little child can give. After three days they brought into our house, and there was this little one who could scarcely pronounce my name, he loved with great love, he loved until it hurt. And this is what I bring before you, to love one another until it hurts, but don't forget that there are many children, many children, many men and women who haven't got what you have. And remember to love them until it hurts."

Living authentically and walking with holiness always involves sacrifice. It has to hurt. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even what is apparently a generous gesture can be nothing. It is no wonder that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus and the young child in our story above the interest of Mother Teresa. It is easy to make the houses of our lives look like they are in perfect order when in fact they are in shambles within. Religion can sometimes make this hypocritical masquerade easy to accomplish. We can find ourselves in all the right holy places, reciting all of the correct prayers, participating in community collections, and reciting the proper doctrines only to find ourselves empty, shallow, self-focused, and overly anxious about personal concerns.

The one who learns to discover their inner poverty, their spiritual poverty, is the only one who can truly place him or herself at the mercy of God. It is only when we allow ourselves to be empty that we realize Who we actually need to fill us. This is the real meaning of trust. Many of us are afraid to take the plunge. We allow ourselves to detach from only so much, always keeping a watchful eye on the protection of our securities. We understand the value of poverty, but we do not want to become too poor. As long as we are able to recognize this tension, our reluctance to let go and our struggle, we can continue our journey of humbly learning how to love so deeply that it hurts. God understands and waits.

En la liturgia de hoy, Jesús nos enseña lo que vale ante Dios. Sus ejemplos ayudan a clarificar lo que existe en el corazón de cada uno según su posición y estatus económico. Por un lado, Jesús condena algunas actitudes y alaba otras. Desenmascara y confronta a los escribas y maestros de la ley, y alaba la ofrenda de la viuda. Él observaba cuidadosamente para enseñar lo correcto, lo que lleva a vivir con dignidad. Había visto el sufrimiento de los pobres, de los enfermos, de los huérfanos y de las viudas. También, veía como los ricos se aprovechaban de los más pobres; no había ninguna consideración para ellos, les cobraban impuestos, les hacían cumplir leyes injustas que ni ellos mismos cumplían.

Ahora, ¿cómo hacemos para compartir lo que tenemos? ¿Damos de lo que nos sobra, como los ricos de los tiempos de Jesús o somos como la viuda de Sarepta y la del Evangelio que generosamente dieron lo que tenían desde su pobreza? Actualmente, es digno de resaltar la grandeza de los pobres, de los inmigrantes que son ricos en bendiciones porque su confianza está puesta en Dios. Recordemos, siempre, que Dios ve los corazones y no las apariencias. Lo que da valor es el amor con que se hacen las cosas. "Yo les aseguro que esta viuda pobre ha dado más que todos los otros" (Marcos 12:43). En resumen, el mundo necesita generosidad y confianza al máximo. Oremos con el Salmo 145: "Da el Señor protección al forastero, y reanima al huérfano y a la viuda, mas desvía el camino de los malvados, El Señor reina para siempre, tu Dios, Sion, de generación en generación".

Favor de NO INGRESAR con Bebidas o Alimentos, goma de mascar, ni gorras. Muchas Gracias!
