Jesus rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive
You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Comunión Espiritual

Creo, Jesús mío, que estáis realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar. Os amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo recibiros en mi alma. Pero como ahora no puedo recibiros sacramentado, venid a lo menos espiritualmente
a mi corazón. Y como si ya os hubiese recibido, os abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.
Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Ti.
Amén.

Prayers for Our Military Troops

Perhaps you, too, love a service member. Or maybe, because you've served in the past or know someone who has, you understand the sacrifices these men and women make to guard our safety and preserve our freedom. We invite you to join us as we pray for the men and women who serve.

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

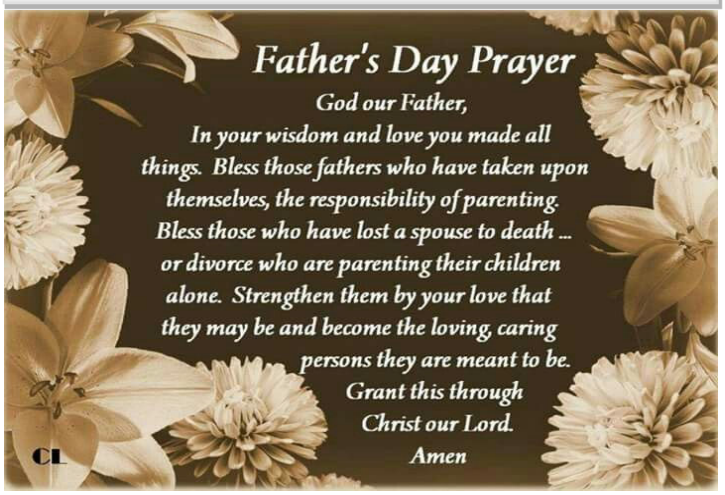
THE WIND AND THE SEA

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the "big lake," as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, "Respect the lake; don't take it for granted." People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today's Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.



Our thoughts and prayers are with Mary Kidd at the passing of her mother, Margaret (Geri) Kidd and with Griselda A. Covarrubias, at the passing of her husband, Arthur G. Covarrubias Sr. Please keep them and their families in your prayers.

(Genesis 28:15 - I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go... I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you).

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura — Aquí se romperá la arrogancia de tus olas (Job 38:1, 8-11).
Salmo — Demos gracias al Señor por sus bondades (Salmo 107 [106]).
Segunda Lectura — Ya todo es nuevo (2 Corintios 5:14-17).
Evangelio — ¿Quién es éste, a quien hasta el viento y el mar obedecen? (Marcos 4:35-41).

Señor Dios, Padre bueno, creador del género humano,
Tú enviaste a tu Hijo Jesús,
para redimir y salvar a los hombres,
El quiso nacer en una familia
como la nuestra,
le diste a la Virgen María
como madre
y a San José como padre;
te pedimos por estos padres para que, a ejemplo de San José, amen a sus hijos, los cuiden y protejan,
y sobre todo, les enseñes a amarte a Tí
que eres nuestro Padre del Cielo,
te sirvan en todo,
y alcancen finalmente
la vida eterna.
Te lo pedimos a Ti que vives y reinas

FIESTA DE LA FE

Pan y vino

Presentamos pan y vino como ofrenda porque son elementos que encierran la vida en sí mismos. No son un producto único, sino el resultado de un proceso. En sí mismos, son simbólicos del misterio pascual que celebra la Eucaristía; hay un proceso de muerte y vida. El grano de trigo ha muerto, ha dado fruto, se ha triturado y ahora es pan para que todos coman. El vino ha salido de las parras generosas, trae en sí la espera del tiempo, la madurez de la uva, la extracción del jugo, la fermentación... hay un proceso de vida para llegar no sólo al vino, sino a un buen vino; a un vino que es la sangre misma de la vida, que dentro de sí lleva ya el aspecto festivo de algo que se celebra y se comparte. Es más que una bebida relajante o sabrosa, es la bebida sagrada porque en ella se acompaña una promesa, se marca un momento, se vive un juramento. Comer y beber siempre han sido un gesto de solidaridad entre hombres y mujeres; se come y bebe con quien se tiene confianza, con quien se es familia, con quien se espera recrear la propia vida a partir de algo que va más allá de nosotros mismos. —Miguel Arias, Copyright © J. FEAST OF FAITH
The Collection: A Privilege

As the altar is prepared for the celebration of the Eucharist, the collection is taken up. In the early church, this part of the Mass must have been something to behold, as the people suddenly began to move, bringing forward to the deacons and priests freshly-baked bread and fine wine. Then, after the Eucharistic Prayer, that same community came forward again in the Communion procession, and they received back the very gifts they had given, now transformed into something infinitely more precious than bread and wine: the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Beginning around the eleventh century, it became the custom for people to present money instead of bread and wine, and the procession of the faithful gradually disappeared (it survives in the liturgy of Holy Thursday). But the meaning is the same. We continue to bring the fruit of our labors and to offer them freely to God. And God continues to transform them into Christ. It is through our generous sharing of time, talent, and treasure that our parishes can preach the gospel, reach out to the sick and the imprisoned, and celebrate the sacraments.

There are a few new guidelines for Houses of Worship. Bishop Rojas has decided that due to the status of San Bernardino County the Diocese will move forward with caution as the state begins to open. The changes you will see at St. Anthony's include a change in social distancing from 6 feet to 3 feet while in the church/hall for mass. The 6-foot rule stays in affect in every other circumstance while on the parish campus. This change will affect seating in the pews. Ushers will, however, continue seating in every other pew at this time. This will allow the clergy and EMs to bring communion to the congregation since processions are not allowed due to the social distancing rule. You will also notice that the parking lot will be completely open for all spaces to be utilized. Sanitizing and proper mask wearing are still strongly in affect and will be enforced. If you are unable to accommodate proper mask wearing, we encourage you to join us via our livestream. In the next few months as we see guidelines change, Fr. Gerry, clergy & staff appreciate your cooperation and following of the guidelines we have in place at St. Anthony's. Please keep in mind, the procedures we have at St. Anthony's may not mirror other parishes but have been put in place for what is best for our community and parish.
Parish offices remain closed however, please call the parish or RE office should you need assistance. Thank you and God Bless us as we continue to move forward in this pandemic.

A Salute to Fathers

Today, Almighty God, as we observe Father's Day, I lift all the fathers of this world up to You with adoration and love. Fathers play an integral role in the lives of our children, as mentors, providers, caregivers and so much more and also provide a firm foundation on which our children stand. Thank You, Jehovah Jireh, for Your provision and for showering them with Your divine blessings. I pray that You would consecrate fathers and set them apart for Your purpose.

St Joseph's Table
(Part 1)

The Feast of St. Joseph, which always falls in the middle of Lent, is especially commemorated and celebrated in Italy in general, and Sicily in particular, where St. Joseph has been long-regarded as the island's Patron saint. It is there, among Sicilians, that the tradition of the "Tavola di San Giuseppe" or "St. Joseph's Table" has its origins. March 19th is, in Italy, also Father's Day—which isn't at all surprising, as St. Joseph was, of course, the foster father of Jesus. This celebration is a symbolic "thank you" and a renewal of the Sicilian people's devotion to Saint Joseph. It is a shared celebration with the entire community where the riches of food are given as alms to the poor: traditional etiquette is that no one can be turned away from this table.

Origins

Legends from the Middle Ages attributed the end of a devastating drought to a prayer-devotion that the Sicilian people made to St. Joseph.

During a time of drought and famine, no rain fell on Medieval Sicily. Food crops for both people and livestock withered and died. The people prayed to St. Joseph for help.

When the clouds opened, the desperately-needed rain poured down, and there was much rejoicing! After the harvest, to show their gratitude, they prepared a table with special foods to honor St. Joseph and to share with the poor. After thanking and honoring the saint, they distributed the food to the less fortunate.

This celebration became an annual tradition. Each year, wealthy families prepared huge buffets. The less fortunate people of the community, especially the homeless and sick, were invited, and all the remaining food and proceeds were given to the poor.

Through the years, the tradition has remained throughout Italy, and is also prevalent in Poland, Malta, Spain, the Philippines, and, with the influx of Sicilian immigrants to the US, here in our own country.

Three-Fold Purpose

The heart of this tradition can be found in these three aspects:

Veneration—special recognition of St. Joseph during Mass and at the "table."
The Table—both a kind of "altar of reverence", and a communal celebration.
The Poor—The intention of all the gifts is to help those in need.

Job 38:1, 8-11 • 2 Corinthians 5:14-17 • Mark 4:35-41

"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" —Mark 4:40

If you have ever been on an airplane when turbulence bounces it around, you know ow unsettling it can be. When the pilot or flight attendant comes on the loudspeaker and announces there is nothing to be concerned about—it's just a temporary change in the wind or air pressure—you sigh in relief. But it wouldn't be unusual to still be a little worried. Why is that? Well, probably it's because it's hard to place our trust in another human being, even if he or she seems very qualified.

In our Gospel today, a storm threatens to capsize the boat in which Jesus and his disciples are sailing. Jesus isn't the least bit worried. In fact, he's fast asleep! His disciples, on the other hand, are terrified. They wake Jesus and he calms the storm with just a wave of his hand. They have seen Jesus perform other miracles, but still they are amazed that he can control creation. When we are faced with frightening situations, it might be hard for us to believe that Jesus can change our predicament. This Gospel should remind us that God can do anything!

Lord, please give me unwavering faith that you are God, and you will not abandon me.

LISTEN

WALK THE WALK: FOLLOWING CHRIST AS HIS DISCIPLE BY DR. TIM GRAY

Being a disciple of Jesus has always been synonymous with being a Christian. From the Scriptures and from his own experience, Dr. Tim Gray explains how Christian discipleship calls us to follow in the footsteps of Christ as engaged participants in God’s plan. In doing so, we bear witness to the Lord in our families, workplaces, and communities.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into unchartered waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"?

"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" - Mk 4:38c-39, 41
