LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The celebration of our country's independence gives us cause to reflect on the gift of freedom. We treasure the liberties our country provides, but are they the real source of freedom? True freedom is a gift given to us by God, not by the world. In fact, the world robs us of freedom by tethering us to a need for money, power, possessions, and prestige as vehicles to success and measures of self-worth. Even though we possess certain liberties, we are held captive by a system that sees no value in the Cross of Christ. It is no wonder Jesus sent his seventy-two disciples into the world with only what they were wearing. The freedom given to us by God is a matter of the heart and requires detachment from the very things we think we cannot do without. A heart secure in God's peace is something no one can take away and something really worth dying for.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his queen Constantia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband's infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Elizabeth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedicated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode between armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay member at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over, she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Afonso IV, from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever.

Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to 5 July since 4 July is Independence Day, a national holiday.

Prayers for Our Military Troops

Perhaps you, too, love a service member. Or maybe, because you've served in the past or know someone who has, you understand the sacrifices these men and women make to guard our safety and preserve our freedom. We invite you to join us as we pray for the men and women who serve.

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CELEBRATE SUMMER SUNDAYS

PARTNERS IN FAITH

As summer begins, the regular routine of school and work slows down and we have more time for family and summer pursuits.

Don't forget to make the Lord's Day a key part of your summer this year. Try these ideas to rest and reconnect with God and each other on your summer Sundays:

SUNDAY MASS

Remember our obligation to attend Sunday Mass lasts all year, even during the summer or when we're on vacation. Nothing produces a healthy family better than giving God a central place in your family.

REST, REST, REST

This summer, resolve to do nothing but rest and play on Sunday—no chores, no shopping, no housework. Instead, play together. Fly a kite, toss a Frisbee, or stay home and read stories or lay board games.

Mass Transit—family discussion on your way to and from Mass -prepare for Sunday Readings

Isaiah 66:10-14 • Galatians 6:14-18 • Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

"After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit."— Luke 10:1

There are a lot people in the world who need help because they are sick, they don't have enough to eat, they don't have a home to live in, or they don't have family members who can take care of them, so Jesus needs a lot of helpers. When he was alive on this earth he wasn't everywhere at once so he relied on family and friends and many others to do help him do his work. The twelve apostles might be the most famous of his helpers, but he asked others, like the 72 people in today's reading, to help spread the Good News that God loves everyone and wants peace, justice, health, and goodness for all. He told those 72 people that they had a hard job in front of them, but that there was a special place in heaven waiting for them. They soon discovered that with Jesus' help they could do things he could do, like cure the sick and cast out demons too!

Jesus, help us to remember that you need our help to love and care for people who are hurting now. Give us a big heart, ready to help anyone we see who is in need.

How can you be Jesus for someone else this week?

JOHN PAUL II IN AMERICA: UNITING A CONTINENT

The papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on our homeland. Driven a conviction to unite the Americas under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, he traveled from Argentina all the way to Alaska, shaping a generation and changing history along the way. In celebration of our country this week, enjoy this film documenting the journeys of John Paul II, the “Pilgrim Pope.”

FORMED NOW! CATHOLIC SPIRITUALITY AND BASEBALL

What better time to discuss America's favorite pastime than the week of July 4? Believe it or not, baseball can shed much light on our spiritual lives through its familiar images. In this video, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber discuss how these seemingly opposite topics relate to one another. After watching this, you'll be reminded of your mission: to be safe at home!

LISTEN

WALKING THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH BY ADM. JEREMIAH DENTON

Admiral Jeremiah Denton spent over seven years as a prisoner of war in Vietnam. In this moving presentation, he recalls how, through the power of prayer, he withstood extreme torture rather than betray God or the U.S.A. For his valor, he was awarded the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, the Navy Cross, and the POW Medal. He is now a champion of various humanitarian causes. Enjoy his testimony in this talk!
