GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any "god." When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God's creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, "If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?" The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. "God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?" God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God's unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don't repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God's divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation.

Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." - Lk 19:8

VOTE "NO" ON PROPOSITION 1: Proposition 1 is an expensive, misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions – for any reason, paid for by tax dollars. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws that would remain in effect. Don't hand lawmakers a blank check to pay for abortions and allow California to become an "abortion sanctuary".

Prayers for Our Military Troops

Perhaps you, too, love a service member. Or maybe, because you've served in the past or know someone who has, you understand the sacrifices these men and women make to guard our safety and preserve our freedom. We invite you to join us as we pray for the men and women who serve.

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.

Prayer to End Abortions

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that You have conquered death by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself never to be silent, never to be passive, never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement, and never to stop defending life until all my brothers and sisters are protected, and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all, through Christ our Lord. Amen!

Have you REGISTERED at St. Anthony's?

Registering with a parish is the official way to join a parish community and begin receiving important information on the events and news of the parish, including donation statements for tax purposes at the end of the year. Registering allows the Diocese to determine the needs of a parish by the number of parishioners that are registered. This includes the number of priests and deacons that are assigned to the parish, liturgical celebrations, and the gifts that can be used to support the ministries of the Diocese. As a registered parishioner you are showing your commitment to your parish and joining a community of fellow Catholics to celebrate Mass and join in the Eucharist. We at St. Anthony's are thankful and blessed for each of parishioners and look forward to you joining our parish community.

MEN'S Spirituality

The world of today is full of distractions; political, social, financial and even domestic. In the midst of all these distractions, it appears men are mainly affected. The responsibilities God handed over to Adam in Genesis 2:14-28, to take care of Eve and his family, show that much is needed from every man as the head of the family; not only financial and protective responsibilities, but also spiritual responsibility of his family. No one gives what he/she does not have. Therefore the spirituality of men are so much needed to be solidified in order to help build up their families. Men's Spirituality Ministry avails you of that opportunity to build up your spiritual life and that of your family. St. James says, "faith without good deed is dead." (James 2:17) Therefore all Christian Men are invited to join the Men's Spirituality Ministry with Fr. Kenneth.

MEETINGS STARTING SOON....

JOIN US AS WE PRAY WITH THE UPCOMING SUNDAY GOSPEL READINGS: LECTIO DIVINA

We are a group of women who come together to read the upcoming Sunday Gospel. We read, meditate, pray, contemplate (Lectio Divina) on the sacred scripture in order to become closer to God. This is a wonderful way to get to know other women in the parish and more importantly increase your communion with God. All that is required is that you are open to the Word of God that speaks to us through sacred scripture.

Halloween: A Season of Saints

Diane M Houdek taken from Catholic Update

Each year, we hear Halloween is an ancient pagan festival that was taken over by the Church. Or we hear it's a celebration of evil and witchcraft and that Christians shouldn't take part in it.

But from its earliest beginnings, this holiday was linked to the feast of All Saints. The word "Halloween" is a shortened form of "all Hallows Eve," the day before All Saints' Day,. Hallow is the same word for "holy" that we find in the Lord's Prayer, and e'en is a contraction of "evening." In fact, the connection between Halloween , the saints, and medieval Catholic customs may hae been the reason the holiday has been criticized since the time of the Reformation. So let's take a look at why this day is something to celebrate.

The tradition of Halloween costumes has its roots in the Middle Ages as a reaction to the outbreak of bubonic plague, now known as the Black Death. As Europe lost nearly half of its population, the survivors were deeply concerned about questions of the afterlife. Historian Father Augustine Thompson, O.P., writes in a BeliefNet article about Halloween, "More Masses were said on All Souls Day, and artistic representations were devised to remind everyone of their own mortality.

...The custom of going door to door asking for treats of some kind can be found in a variety of ethnic traditions in Europe and among immigrants to the United States. Sometimes it is combined with harvest festival; other times it is part of visiting family graves in the cemetery.

Being a Christian is like Being a Pumpkin

God picks you from the patch and brings you in. (John 15:16)

Then washes all the dirt off of you. (2 Corinthians 5:17)

He opens you up and scoops out all the yucky stuff. He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. (Romans 6:6)

Then he carves you a new smiling face. (Psalm 71:23)

And He puts His light inside you to shine for all the world to see (Matthew 5:16)

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
