

OFFICE OF YOUTH MINISTRY FEBRUARY 2022 UPDATE

Archdiocese of Kingston
Nadia Gundert, Youth Ministry Coordinator
youth@romancatholic.kingston.on.ca, 613-484-2446

It's February!

This month, Pope Francis' prayer intention is for religious sisters and consecrated women. We are so fortunate to have a rich history of women religious serving across the Archdiocese of Kingston in health care, education, and outreach to those in need. We give thanks for the Sisters of Providence of St. Vincent de Paul, the Congregation of Notre Dame, the Religious Hospitallers of St. Joseph and other women religious who have ministered in our archdiocese. These wonderful women have been so supportive of youth ministry over the years through financial donations for special youth projects, sharing of their time, and their constant encouragement and prayers. Bless you all and thank you for your witness and vocation. For more information about the communities of religious sisters in our archdiocese visit our Vocations page.

I hope you are well and if I can be of any assistance, please reach out.

Blessings and prayers,

Nadia

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

For more information on our archdiocesan synodal process please visit:

www.romancatholic.kingston.on.ca/synod

Youth Ministry Contacts were emailed a copy of the Synod Conversation Toolkit. You can also find it on our synod website. This toolkit highlights what you need to know about the process and has some more general and user friendly questions to have conversations with young people, as we discussed at our Fall Youth Ministry Commission.

We are now in the participation phase of the synod so the online survey is open on the website as well! Share your voice and spread the word!
