

OFFICE OF YOUTH MINISTRY MARCH 2022 UPDATE

Archdiocese of Kingston
Nadia Gundert, Youth Ministry Coordinator
youth@romancatholic.kingston.on.ca, 613-484-2446

Hello!

A big thanks to all of you that are participating and encouraging others to join in on the synodal process. We have had hundreds of voices shared in the last month or so and it is wonderful to see so many young people participating! Please continue to invite youth and their families to share their experience of Church with us.

As we move into the season of Lent, there are many resources up on our youth outreach page, some of which are highlighted below. I wish you a blessed Lenten season and pray it truly is a time of reflection, renewal and spiritual growth.

I hope you are well and if I can be of any assistance, please reach out.

Blessings and prayers,

Nadia

Youth Ministry Contacts were emailed a copy of the Synod Conversation Toolkit. You can also find it on our synod website. This toolkit highlights what you need to know about the process and has some more general and user friendly questions to have conversations with young people, as we discussed at our Fall Youth Ministry Commission.

We are now in the participation phase of the synod so the online survey is open on the website as well! Share your voice and spread the word!

LENTEN SERIES: FROM GRIEF TOWARD HEALING, RESPONDING TO THE CRISES OF OUR TIMES

The joint Anglican-Catholic Justice & Peace Commission is hosting a Lenten series on grief, involving four sessions on Wednesday evenings at 7pm during March. The sessions will consider grief (Mar 9 - James Reid Bereavement Team); grief as it pertains to the climate (Mar 16 - Mary Raddon); how grief is experienced as "the other" (Mar 23 - Mona Rahman) and finally, looking at grief through hope (Mar 30 - Sr. Pauline Lally). Please join via Zoom <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/4905877033>.
