

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

ST. NICHOLAS PARISH

From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday we also celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. We find ourselves quickly coming to the end of the Easter Season. To emphasize the greatness of the Easter Season we celebrate it for forty days that compliments the Season of Lent: mirroring the Lenten Season. We then top it off with an additional ten days (especially noted if we celebrated the Ascension last Thursday) as we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost on the 50th day following Easter. The word "Pentecost" means the fiftieth day. In the Old Testament it is referred to the "Feast of Weeks". Exodus 34:22. "You shall observe the festival of weeks, the first fruits of wheat harvest." This was an observance of seven weeks of planting and growing followed by the celebration of offering the first fruits of the wheat harvest. How appropriate for Pentecost being the celebration of the "First Fruits" of the Spirit as the Apostles preach with the result of thousands of converts to the faith.

Back to the Ascension, as we celebrate this feast we celebrate that where Jesus has gone we hope to follow. Jesus Christ returns to the Father with his resurrected and glorified human body. Jesus has his human body, now resurrected and glorified, forever.

This is a very important point to be made: God created us Body and Soul. Many people have the dualistic view of life expressed as the Spirit is good and the Body is bad. Part of this idea comes from the ancient philosophies of individuals like Plato who considered the body, because of its imperfections, was a prison for the human spirit. Eternal life happens when the spirit is released from the prison of the body. A modern manifestation of this idea is expressed when someone claims to be a spiritual person. (They do not believe in organized religion or church.) There is a truth here but not the whole truth. It is true that we have a spiritual life, but that is not the whole story. We are called to holiness while we live in the body. Spirituality is a means to holiness, not the final destination. Living in holiness is manifested in and through the body. Holiness transforms both body and soul. There must be a bodily manifestation of holiness. That is in part the theology of the incarnation. In reality, we are not destined to live in eternity as spiritual beings. We are not angels, nor are we intended to be angels. We are human beings, created in the Image and Likeness of God, with a body and a soul. This is what we are: beings with a body and a soul. Salvation and eternal life are for both body and soul. "We believe in the resurrection of the body" as we say in our creed. The teaching on the Ascension of the Lord is an affirmation of the Resurrection and the ultimate goodness and final destination of both the body and the soul: together and glorified in heaven. Jesus Christ came to save us body and soul. It is an affirmation of who we are as God's beloved human beings.

As Jesus ascends into heaven he sends with the Father the promised Advocate: The Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son. The Holy Spirit sanctifies us and draws us deeper into the very life of God: love. While we live in this world, the Holy Spirit will lead us into the heart of God, the Church; "Mystical Body of Christ". The Church is in a manner of speaking a manifestation of the Incarnation: a physical, bodily, manifestation of the Word of God, Jesus Christ. With this in mind, we can say with confidence where Jesus Christ has gone, we hope to follow; as the Bride of Christ (the Church) and as individuals.

It is official, the academic year is over and summer vacations are underway; at least for our students. This can be a good time for rest, recreation and refreshment. It is a great blessing to have this time off from the hard work of education. It is also a time that can set our students back. It is all too easy to let things slide and for our students to slip into bad habits that are not conducive to intellectual and spiritual growth. I have always been assigned to parishes which have had schools. One common experience expressed by principals and teachers was not only the joy for summer vacation but also the down side of summer vacation: many students developed bad habits and have slipped backwards regarding their education. Don't get me wrong, we do want our students to enjoy their summer vacation. Getting outside, engaging in sports, having fun etc. but it is important for them to know that education doesn't only take place in the classroom. It is important for them to spend some time reading and thinking; more to the point, reading and thinking good things. It is also extremely easy to waste numerous hours on some of the current video games. It would be wise to monitor the amount of time with these video games as well as time spent with social media. I have heard too many negative stories and studies in sociology and psychology that expound on the negative effects on young minds.

Summer vacation is not a vacation from our vocation. With more free time it is also easy to neglect the spiritual life. Stay connected with the church. I have mentioned this once before, if there is travel in your plans make the effort to attend Sunday mass while vacationing. It is a great way to stress the importance to thank God for the many blessings and opportunities we enjoy. There are many advantages by attending Sunday mass in different locations during our travels. It gives an example of the universal (catholic) nature of the Church. The same Sunday mass that would be celebrated here at St. Nicholas is also celebrated in other Catholic Churches everywhere on any Sunday. It also gives us an appreciation of the size, strength and goodness of the Catholic Church throughout the world. We are part of the great Christian Community, the Church; the Body of Christ in the world.

Next Sunday we will be celebrating the feast of Pentecost. Come Holy Spirit.

Have a great week.

Father Ralko

[BAA: Repeating from last Sunday's bulletin... We still have a bit of business that needs to be addressed. As you have probably observed over the years I have not been one to preach on the Bishop's Annual Appeal from the pulpit. I have announced it but have not preached on this appeal. However, this does not diminish the importance of this collection for the diocese. We do not need to be overly reminded about the important work of the diocese. Nevertheless, this is part of our responsibility to assist in this important work. We do so with our financial support. I wish there were some magical way to inspire greater participation in the Bishop's Annual Appeal. I find it a rather unpleasant business to remind people of their responsibilities. But the Appeal is a part of our responsibility as Catholic Christians. We have a personal responsibility to provide for the financial support of our parish as well as our diocese. I accept my responsibility for both and have made my pledge. I hope that you will do the same.

The envelopes are available at the ends of the pews. I ask you to please pick one up and make your pledge or donation today. There is one particular goal that we can achieve; increasing the number of parishioners participating in the BAA. Our participation rate is not as it should be. So, I ask you, for those who have contributed last year please repeat your pledge to the appeal. If you have not, I ask that you take an envelope, fill it in and make some kind of pledge or one-time gift to the appeal. We can do this. And finally, for those who have already responded to this year's appeal... thank you.]

Note Well: Wednesday morning mass will be at 8:00 am for the summer months.
