PENTECOST SUNDAY

When we were in high school, there was an old cheer at ballgames, “We’ve got spirit, yes we do. We’ve got spirit, how ‘bout you?” We would scream it back and forth with the opposing team’s fans. And while, “Got Spirit?” could certainly be the catchphrase today, we see people receiving the spirit in many different ways. In Acts, there is a bombastic appearance of a loud noise and a driving wind, followed by people being able to understand speech in many languages. It is reminiscent of a booming, “This is my Son, my Beloved.” Psalm 104 “Lord, Send out Your Spirit” was also the first psalm used at the Easter Vigil, in response to the creation story. First Corinthians acknowledges that there are many different spiritual gifts, but we must use them together as the body of Christ. The Sequence is a beautiful prayer that calls down the Spirit. In John’s Gospel, the Spirit comes through the breath of Jesus. What can we take away from this? That the Spirit of God is not “one size fits all.” Rather, the Holy Spirit will come to us, speak to us, be given to us, as each of us needs.

UNLOCK THE DOORS

When we put the Gospel in its context, John 20 starts with the empty tomb and the appearance to Mary Magdalene. Still, the disciples were scared and confused. They gathered together to regroup. They locked the door for fear of the Jews, whom they had just experienced as an angry mob, whom they had just seen crucify their friend Jesus. These disciples were afraid of the Jews, but they may also have been feeling guilty and confused for running away from Jesus at the cross, for hiding, for trying to protect themselves.

Now the risen Jesus comes to them saying, “Peace be with you,” showing them his wounds and greeting them again. Jesus is modeling something very powerful here. Most of us hate to be vulnerable. We try to hide our wounds and scars. We try to protect ourselves and show everybody that we have it together. In order to be healed, to receive the Spirit, to move on in our lives, we need to unlock our internal doors. We need to let Jesus into our house, into our hearts and into those darkened corners of ourselves. It might be frightening. It might mean going to the sacrament of reconciliation or speaking with a spiritual director or even with a therapist.

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

We often worry about how others will respond if we are less than perfect. Jesus knew the disciples were flawed humans. He did not get angry or give them a guilt trip. He said, “Peace be with you.” He was gentle. Jesus gave them the gift of new life through a simple gesture. He breathed the Spirit into them. This is reminiscent of Genesis, when God breathed life into Adam, and Ezekiel, when God breathed life back into the dry bones. Jesus concluded with, “Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them and whose sins you retain are retained.” So not only did Jesus entrust them with this role, this power, he first showed them how it is done. How do we in turn breathe life into our families and friends? Our coworkers? The stranger we meet?

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTÉS

ABRIR LAS PUERTAS

Cuando ponemos el Evangelio en su contexto, Juan 20 empieza con el sepulcro vacío y la aparición a María Magdalena. Aún así, los discípulos estaban asustados y confundidos. Se reunieron para reagruparse. Cerraron la puerta con llave por miedo a los judíos, a quienes habían vistos furiosos en una turba, quienes acababan de crucificar a su amigo Jesús. Estos discípulos tenían miedo de los judíos, pero también podían haberse sentido culpables y confundidos por haber huido de Jesús en la cruz, por esconderse, por tratar de protegerse ellos mismos.

Ahora Jesús resucitado viene hacia ellos diciéndoles: “la paz sea con ustedes”, mostrándoles sus cicatrices, y saludándolos una vez más. Jesús está moldeando algo muy poderoso aquí. Muchos de nosotros odiamos ser vulnerables. Intentamos esconder nuestras heridas y cicatrices. Intentamos protegernos y mostramos a todos que todo está bien. Para poder ser sanados, para recibir al Espíritu, para seguir con nuestras vidas, necesitamos abrir nuestras puertas interiores. Necesitamos dejar a Jesús entrar a nuestra casa, a nuestros corazones, y en aquellas esquinas oscuras de nosotros. Podría ser aterrador. Podría significar ir al Sacramento de la Reconciliación o hablar con un director espiritual o incluso con un terapeuta.

RECIBIR AL ESPÍRITU SANTO

Frecuentemente nos preocupamos por cómo los demás responderán si no somos perfectos. Jesús sabía que los discípulos eran humanos con defectos. Él no se enojó ni los hizo sentir culpables. Él dijo: “la paz sea con ustedes”. Fue gentil. Jesús les dio el don de la vida nueva por medio de un gesto simple. Él sopló en ellos el Espíritu Santo. Esto es una reminiscencia del Génesis, cuando Dios sopló vida en Adán; y Ezequiel, cuando Dios volvió a soplar vida en los huesos secos. Jesús concluyó con: “a quienes les perdonen los pecados, les serán perdonados; y a quienes se los retengan, les serán retenidos”. Así que no sólo les confió Jesús este papel, este poder, sino que primero les mostró cómo se hace. ¿Cómo nosotros insuflamos vida a nuestras familias y amigos? ¿A nuestros compañeros de trabajo? ¿Al extranjero que encontramos?

A message from our Finance Council Chair

My fellow parishioners of St. Raphael,

This message is part of a limited series of communications from myself, as the Finance Council Chair on behalf of the Finance Council. Our goal during these challenging times is for all parishioners to have an understanding of the financial position of St. Raphael as we begin to recover from the effects of COVID-19.

Over the past several weeks, many of us have experienced loss as a result of the coronavirus – loss of life; loss of livelihood; loss of smiles, embraces, and connectedness that comes from gathering with others. During this time, our parish has also experienced loss. As we all remain apart for Mass, ensuring the safety of our most vulnerable parishioners, our parish has experienced a loss in the form of a significant reduction of weekly offerings. In the coming weeks I will be sharing more detail on the state of our financial situation.

We remain committed to our vision and mission and to spiritually feeding the parishioners of St. Raphael. Your generous donations to offertory make this possible. As you're able, please commit to financially supporting our vision and mission here at St. Raphael. You can set up recurring donations, make a one-time gift by clicking here to visit our website, or use text-to-give by texting your donation amount to 833-615-3337. You may also mail your weekly envelope or, if you do not receive our weekly envelopes, mail a check to Saint Raphael at: 5801 Falls of Neuse Road, Raleigh NC 27609.

Thank you for your generous support.

Howie Jung – Chair St. Raphael Finance Council

Un mensaje de nuestro Presidente del Consejo de Finanzas

Mis compañeros feligreses de San Rafael,

Este mensaje es parte de una serie limitada de comunicaciones de mí mismo, como Presidente del Consejo de Finanzas en nombre del Consejo de Finanzas. Nuestro objetivo durante estos tiempos difíciles es que todos los feligreses comprendan la posición financiera de St. Raphael a medida que comenzamos a recuperarnos de los efectos de COVID-19.

En las últimas semanas, muchos de nosotros hemos experimentado pérdidas como resultado del coronavirus: pérdida de vidas; pérdida de sustento; pérdida de sonrisas, abrazos y conectividad que proviene de reunirse con otros. Durante este tiempo, nuestra parroquia también ha experimentado pérdidas. A medida que todos permanecemos separados para la misa, garantizando la seguridad de nuestros feligreses más vulnerables, nuestra parroquia ha experimentado una pérdida en la forma de una reducción significativa de las ofertas semanales. En las próximas semanas compartiré más detalles sobre el estado de nuestra situación financiera.

Seguimos comprometidos con nuestra visión y misión y con la alimentación espiritual de los feligreses de San Rafael. Sus generosas donaciones al ofertorio lo hacen posible. Como pueda, comprométase a apoyar financieramente nuestra visión y misión aquí en St. Raphael. Puede configurar donaciones recurrentes, hacer una donación única haciendo clic aquí para visitar nuestro sitio web, o usar mensajes de texto enviando un mensaje de texto con el monto de su donación al 833-615-3337. También puede enviar su sobre semanal o, si no recibe nuestros sobres semanales, envíe un cheque a Saint Raphael al: 5801 Falls of Neuse Road, Raleigh NC 27609.

Gracias por su generoso apoyo.

Howie Jung - Presidente del Consejo de Finanzas de St. Raphael
