

Position: Full-time Religious Studies Teacher, Starting August 16, 2024

Saint Mary's College High School is seeking a full-time Religious Studies Teacher beginning with the 2024-2025 school year.

Saint Mary's College High School is a Lasallian Catholic college preparatory located in Berkeley. Operating in a trimester format, we offer an excellent college-preparatory education to an ethnically and economically diverse, inclusive student body. We emphasize academic excellence, student wellness, and community. We are a professional learning community that employs a Backward Design approach to course design, instruction, and assessment. We are fully accredited by the Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA & WASC). To learn more about our school visit www.saintmaryschs.org.

Requirements for Religious Studies Teaching Faculty at Saint Mary's:

- Practicing Catholic
- Active support of the Lasallian Mission of Saint Mary's College High School
- Bachelor of Arts Degree or higher in Religious Studies or a closely related field
- Active participation in the co-curricular and spiritual life of the school
- Facility working with high-school students

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience teaching at the high-school level
- Religious Education Certification
- California Teaching Credential or Master's Degree in Education
- Interest in actively participating in the co-curricular activities of the school (coaching, performing arts, club leadership)
- Experience with multiple teaching methodologies and outcome-based assessment

General Information:

- Salary is based on the faculty salary scale, ranges between $56,000 and $110,000, depending on the experience and education of the applicant.
- Full-time, 10-month (190-day), permanent, exempt position
- Full benefits package included
- Work hours include some evening and weekend events

Please submit cover letter and resume to:

Elizabeth Pérez, Assistant to the Principal, at eperez@stmchs.org

Please include your name and "Religious Studies Position" in the Subject Line.