THE STEWARDSHIP MOMENT:

John the Baptist was making way for Jesus, highlighting the themes of new beginnings and freedom. We must all, especially those facing challenges, see Advent as a time of hopeful preparation for the arrival of Jesus, who brings newness and light into our lives.

FR. DEL... POINTS TO PONDER

As I have mentioned, this year's observance of Advent is the shortest season possible because Christmas falls on a Monday. Inevitably there is also plenty of confusion to go around because the Mass schedule for the weekend is one that we do not face very often.

"Do I have to go to Mass twice next weekend? "Does one Mass for the weekend 'count' for both?" "Can I do a 'two for one' and celebrate Advent and Christmas without going to church twice?" Yes. No. No.

In short, we have a Saturday afternoon and a Sunday morning Mass in each of our churches for the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Then, for Christmas, we have three Sunday afternoon/evening Masses in each church, as well as one Monday morning Mass in each church for Christmas Morning.

So, we have dropped four Sunday morning Masses for the Fourth Sunday of Advent in our Family of Parishes. This does not mean that the Fourth Sunday of Advent is not important. While recognizing that both the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas are Holy Days of Obligation, we are also trying to be realistic. Many people will not attend Mass on both days (this is not permission, but reality), and we only have so many priests, musicians and liturgical ministers. Most parishes throughout the archdiocese have amended the weekend Mass schedules for these same reasons. You'll find a great graphic in this bulletin that makes the schedule clear.

On another note, this weekend's Gospel focuses on those who spent their lives pointing to the Messiah: the prophet Isaiah, Saint Paul, and John the Baptist. Each of these persons give us an example of those who discerned God's call at various stages of Salvation History.

This same history continues on in each of us. We live our lives each day, and we may be the only "Gospel" that people encounter see and hear. Each of us continues to be the voice crying out in the desert, the one anointed by God who has the spirit of the Lord upon us, a people called to pray without ceasing.

These Advent days in this last week of preparation challenge us to realize the relationship we have with Christ so that we can offer the message of Christ's hope in the way that we live.

In speaking about John the Baptist, Pope Francis reminds us:

"Let us learn from the one who was the forerunner of Jesus the ability to bear witness to the Gospel with courage, beyond our own differences, while preserving the harmony and friendship that form the basis of any credible proclamation of the faith."

OH, NOW I GET IT!

By Fr. Jeff Kemper

Have you ever thought at Mass, "What in the world is this reading about?" Each week, you can learn some background to make sense of the Scripture for the next Sunday that may be hard to understand.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

2 Sam 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16 King David had planned to build a glorious temple for God, but Nathan the prophet receives a message from God that it is not His intention to dwell in a temple. (The Ark of the Covenant, which was seen to be the dwelling place of God, was in a tent.) Nathan reveals this to the King, along with a reminder of all that the Lord has done for Israel and David personally. The Lord promises a "house" for David, which will be his descendants who will rule forever. What God gives to Israel and David is pure gift; nothing earned, nothing merited.

Rom 16:25-27 These last words of Paul's letter to the Romans (in a rather lengthy sentence, I might add) is a statement of praise to God in which Paul tells the story of salvation in one sentence and an "Amen." TO HIM WHO CAN STRENGTHEN YOU: God the Father. THE MYSTERY: The hidden plan of God partially revealed by the prophets, but fully revealed in Christ through word and action. MADE KNOWN TO ALL NATIONS: This is by the preaching of the apostles.

Lk 1:26-28 BETROTHED: In Palestine, the process of marrying involved three steps. The parents of the couple made an agreement for the marriage of their young children. A year before the marriage, an espousal (betrothal) took place, which was a binding contract to marry. The actual marriage took place when the husband escorted his wife to his house. HAIL: Rejoice. JESUS: Means God saves. God names the child; naming was a sign of authority over the person named. HOW CAN THIS BE...: Mary does not understand that the conception of her child will be by the power of the Holy Spirit but assumes conception by the natural means. This is not an act of doubting. The news of her relative's pregnancy at an old age is a sign of what God can do. HANDMAID: Female servant.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Mary says "Yes" to God's most beautiful and unexpected surprise. How might you prepare to be open to God's surprising gifts?

Envelopes are available in the Narthex for donations in memory of loved ones who have died or in honor of living members of your friends and family. Please include the name of your loved ones and your name on the envelope (or in your own envelope) with your cash or check made out to St. Veronica. The suggested donation is $12.00 per honored loved one. Envelopes can be mailed, hand-delivered or put in the collection baskets. A list of names and donors will appear in the bulletin after Christmas.

Prayer For Those Alone At Holiday Time

Dear Heavenly Father, the holiday season can be quite a trial and even a deep sadness to many people, especially those that are alone at this time, perhaps having lost a loved one through death or divorce or for some other reason.

Draw very close we pray, to those that are alone and lonely over this holiday time. May they discover closeness in their relationship with You that perhaps they did not enjoy before.

Thank You, that You are a God Who is able to sympathize with all our weaknesses, disappointments and difficulties, knowing that You have walked this earth before us and have been tested in similar ways, so that You understand what it means to be alone and isolated.

Comfort the lonely, console the grieving, support the weak, give grace to the afflicted, and reassure those who have allowed fear to invade their peace, with the certainty that You are their ever present help in time of trouble. This we ask in Jesus' name,

Amen.
