Ministries

BECOME AN INSTITUTED ACOLYTE

Men* 21+
years of age

The acolyte is appointed in order to aid the deacon and to minister to the priest. It is his duty therefore to attend to the service of the altar and to assist the deacon and the priest in liturgical celebrations, especially in the celebration of Mass.

How does one become an INSTITUTED ACOLYTE?

Embody the Love of Christ

As one set aside in a special way for the service of the altar, the acolyte should learn all matters concerning public divine worship and strive to grasp their inner spiritual meaning: in that way he will be able each day to offer himself entirely to God, be an example to all by his gravity and reverence in church, and have a sincere love for the Mystical Body of Christ, the people of God, especially for the weak and the sick.

Gain experience as a minister

Cardinal DiNardo has expressed his desire that men chosen for this ministry should be experienced sacristans and liturgical ministers. Volunteer to become a reader, an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, and then a sacristan.

Study

Once you fill out a petition signed by Fr. Hieu, you take the formation classes, offer to serve at two Masses on Sundays as well as major feast days, and agree to take continuing education.

Follow Christ's Teachings

Men must be at least 21 years of age, fully initiated, and living an exemplary Christian way of life, with no impediments to sacramental reception, (e.g., if married, one must be in a valid union recognized by the Church).
