FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Advent is coming to an end and today's central figure is Mary. When Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, greets Mary and makes her very happy: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." He calls her blessed because she has created what was announced to her from the Lord.

Surely the Virgin Mary remained with Elizabeth until the baby Juanito was born because the gospel says that he stayed with her for about three months.

From the first reading, the prophet Micah had already announced that the "leader of Israel" would come out of the small city of Bethlehem ("the house of bread") to shepherd his people with the strength and majesty of the Lord, their God.

Brethren, let us humbly prepare ourselves to receive the Savior of the world because He likes to do great things out of small things.

Merry Christmas!

Father Antonio Ortiz

CUARTO DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Se acaba el Adviento y la figura central de hoy es María. Cuando Isabel, llena del Espíritu Santo, saluda a María y lo hace muy contenta: "Bendita tu entre las mujeres y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre". Le llama dichosa por haber creado lo que le fue anunciado de parte del Señor.

Seguramente la Virgen María permaneció con Isabel hasta que nació el niño Juanito porque el evangelio dice que se quedó con ella unos tres meses.

Ya el profeta Miqueas desde la primera lectura había anunciado que de la pequeña ciudad de Belén ("la casa del pan") saldría el "jefe de Israel" para pastorear a su pueblo con la fuerza y la majestad del Señor, su Dios.

Hermanos, preparémonos con humildad para recibir al Salvador del mundo porque a El le gusta realizar grandes cosas desde las cosas pequeñas.

¡Feliz Navidad!

Padre Antonio Ortiz
