THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today the Gospel of St. Luke tells us about the beginning of Jesus' public life. Luke tells us that he wants to tell us about the life of Jesus after he has been very well informed so as not to tell us lies.

After the temptations of the desert He returns to His village of Nazareth and, as was his custom, goes to the Church (synagogue). He himself, who is the Word of God made flesh, lends his words to the reading of a passage from the prophet Isaiah.

St. Luke is called "the evangelist of the Spirit" because everything is caused by the Holy Spirit. That is why this passage is also filled with the presence of the Spirit whom Jesus proclaims to be upon Him and who has sent Him to fulfill a mission.

As we hear the Gospel today, let us open our hearts to the Word of Jesus so that the Holy Spirit may guide us with the light we need to be better in our personal lives, in the family, and in society.

Father Antonio Ortiz.

III DOMINGO ORDINARIO

Hoy el Evangelio de San Lucas nos narra el inicio de la vida pública de Jesús. Lucas nos dice que nos quiere platicar de la vida de Jesús después de haberse informado muy bien para no contarnos mentiras.

Después de las tentaciones del desierto El vuelve a su pueblo de Nazaret y, como era ya su costumbre, va a la Iglesia (sinagoga). El mismo, que es la Palabra de Dios hecha carne, le presta sus palabras a la lectura de un pasaje del profeta Isaías.

San Lucas es llamado "el evangelista del Espíritu" porque todo lo causa el Espíritu Santo. Por eso este pasaje está lleno también de la presencia del Espíritu que Jesús proclama que esta sobre El y que lo ha enviado a cumplir una misión.

Al escuchar hoy el Evangelio abramos nuestro corazón a la Palabra de Jesús para que el Espíritu Santo nos guie con la luz que necesitamos para ser mejores en nuestra vida personal, en la familia y en la sociedad.

Padre Antonio Ortiz.
