Pentecost Sunday

Readings

Sunday, June 8

Faith First

Acts 2:1-11 – During Pentecost, the disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit, spoke in diverse languages, astonishing a multinational crowd in Jerusalem as each heard God's wonders in their own tongue.

Psalm 104 – I praise the Lord, overwhelmed by His vast & varied creations. I seek to please Him with my thoughts, rejoicing as He refreshes the earth with His life-giving Spirit.

Romans 8:8-17 – Living by the Spirit, not the flesh, aligns us with God. Christ's Spirit in us promises life despite mortal bodies. Led by this Spirit, we are God's children, heirs with Christ, sharing in His glory through our sufferings.

John 14:15-16,23b-26 – Jesus emphasized the importance of obedience to his commandments as a sign of true love for him. He promised the Father would send an Advocate, the Holy Spirit, to be with his followers forever. This Spirit will teach and remind them of Jesus' teachings, which are also the Father's. Jesus and the Father will dwell with those who adhere to these teachings.

Pentecost

Pentecost, the beginning and birthday of the Church, is an annual feast that closes out the Easter season fifty days after the resurrection is celebrated (the word Pentecost has its root in the Greek word that means fifty). It is also a word that was used in Judaism during the time of Jesus, as Pentecost was the word used for the harvest festival Shavuot.

The Christian celebration has its origins in the Acts of the Apostles, where the early disciples experienced the filling of the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus. Acts also states,

"While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. 'This,' he said, 'is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now'" (Acts 1:4-5).

Putting Faith into Action:

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14)

- How does the Holy Spirit guide me in my daily decisions and actions?
- What unique gifts has the Holy Spirit given me to share with others?
- How can I use my unique talents to build up the Church and my community?

This Third Person of the Holy Trinity is known by a variety of names in Christian theology; one name is Paraclete (meaning educator, intercessor, teacher, helper and comforter). This describes how the Holy Spirit is present in the Church with God's people. The Spirit is sent to remind us of all that Jesus said and taught. The Holy Spirit makes everything possible. These meanings highlight why meditating on the feast of Pentecost is an important thing to do. With the whole Church throughout the ages, we may rightfully pray, "Come, Holy Spirit. Come!"

Prayer of the Week

Father of light, from whom every good gift comes, send your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of your wisdom open the horizons of our minds. Loosen our tongues to sing your praise in words beyond the power of speech, for without your Spirit man could never raise his voice in words of peace or announce the truth that Jesus is Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
