Catholic Daughters of the Americas

August First Saturday Mass

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas invite you to join them for 8:00 am Mass at IHM on the First Saturday of August, 8/7/21.

What's stopping you from receiving the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist?

Is it because you need confession? Or because you are missing one of the Sacraments? Or because you are not married in the Catholic Church? Or some other reason, perhaps something someone else told you?

If you meet with us and tell us your story, we will help you come up with next steps, so you can feel loved and supported by us, plus give a great example to your children. We're here to help!

Please call Carmen Fuller or Teresa Gill at the parish office (243-0209) or email at: Carmen@stjosephgj.org or Teresa@stjosephgj.org.

¿Qué le impide recibir el sacramento de la Sagrada Eucaristía?

¿Es porque necesitas confesión? ¿O porque te falta uno de los sacramentos? ¿O porque no está casado en la Iglesia Católica? ¿O alguna otra razón, quizás algo que alguien más te dijo?

Si se reúne con nosotros y nos cuenta su historia, lo ayudaremos a dar los próximos pasos para que pueda sentirse amado y apoyado por nosotros, además de dar un gran ejemplo a sus hijos.

Llame a Carmen Fuller o Teresa Gill a la oficina parroquial (243-0209) o correo electrónico a: Carmen@stjosephgj.org o Teresa@stjosephgj.org. ¡Estamos aquí para ayudar!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Saint Peter Canisius

Saint Peter Canisius was a Jesuit priest at the height of the many Protestant reforms in 16th century Europe. He is known as a prolific Catholic theologian, preacher, teacher and evangelizer.

Canisius was born in 1521 in the city of Nijmegen, now in the Netherlands, son of the city's burgermeister (mayor). At age 15, he studied at the University of Cologne, earning a master's degree in 1540. Following his stewardship desire to serve God in the Church in Germany, he became the first Dutchman to join the newly formed Society of Jesus in 1543.

Canisius became one of the most influential Catholics of his time. Through his teaching, preaching and writing, he led an historic renewal of the Catholic faith in southern Germany and Austria. Canisius wrote a number of books, preached retreats, founded the first German-speaking Jesuit colleges, and cared for the sick, reputedly traveling more than twenty thousand miles on foot or horseback. Because of these frequent travels, tedious and dangerous at the time, he became known as the Second Apostle of Germany after Saint Boniface. Canisius declined an appointment to become Archbishop of Vienna in order to continue his evangelizing ministry.

Renowned as a popular preacher, Canisius packed churches and was said to have been so eloquent and convincing that he attracted hundreds of Protestants back to the Catholic faith.

Canisius produced a well-organized and easily accessible German language catechism, followed by two abbreviated versions: one for middle school students and one for young children.

Canisius was influential with Emperor Ferdinand I, and participated in the Council of Trent. Devoted to the Virgin Mary, he is credited with adding to the Hail Mary the sentence Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners. When asked if he felt overworked, the energetic Canisius replied with a stewardship quote: "If you have too much to do, with God's help you will find time to do it all."

Canisius died on December 21, 1597 at age 76. Canonized and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1925, he is the patron saint of Germany. His feast day is December 21.
