SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. NICHOLAS

Nicholas was born in Patara, part of modern day Turkey, in the year 270 AD and died in the year 343 AD. He is the patron of sailors and children among others. He is credited with many miracles and his legendary tradition of secret gift giving is the source of the contemporary Santa Claus (St. Nick).

Little is known for certain of St. Nicholas' life, but devotion to him became popular soon after his death to the point where Theodosius II, the Roman Emperor, had a church built in 520 AD to honor his burial place. Nicholas lived during a turbulent time in the Roman Empire, seeing both the persecution of Christianity as well as the legalization of Christianity by Constantine. All of his legends and miracles show a concern for those being taken advantage of and protecting the truth of the faith. St. Nicholas, pray for us!
