SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. STEPHEN, PROTOMARTYR

St. Stephen's feast day is December 26, always the day after Christmas. His title, "Protomartyr" means, "First Martyr," since the Acts of the Apostles tells that he was the first follower of Jesus to be killed for his faith. Stephen was one of the first deacons to be appointed to care for the needs of the local community in Jerusalem, which is why he is depicted with a deacon's dalmatic and diagonal stole across his chest. Acts of the Apostles gives a beautiful account of the speech he made in defense of his faith before the authorities accusing him of heresy. His speech details God's saving action through the history of Israel culminating in Jesus Christ.

Acts tells us that Stephen was stoned to death, which is why he is often depicted holding stones. St. Paul was present at Stephen's death, approving of the stoning. St. Stephen, pray for us, that our faith may be as sure as yours!

WELCOME FROM OUR PASTOR, FR. STEVE

Christmas is a time to deepen our relationships with family and friends, and to remember those who have been a significant part of our lives. As a parish family, we come together to deepen our relationship with Jesus and remember that God so loved the world that he gave us His only Son, so that we might not perish, but might have eternal life (Jn. 3:16).

Isaiah the prophet, foretelling the coming of the Messiah, referred to Him as the Prince of Peace. And yet, sadly, the very land Our Lord, the Prince of Peace, called home, is darkened this Christmas by war. Even in our own beloved country, scars of prejudice, civil unrest, and a loss of respect for others greatly contributes to the void of peace we sense in our hearts.

Friends, now more than ever, do we need to proclaim in joyful hope the mystery of Christmas: that God has sent us His Son as the way, truth and life to bring healing to our broken world. May I suggest that we echo the prayer of the early persecuted Church who experienced great hope and peace as they would cry out: Maranatha, Come, Lord.

Come, Lord Jesus, come and renew our fallen world. Come and bring Your healing love to our communities, our families, our homes. Come and bring the peace that the world cannot give, and can never take away. Jesus, Prince of Peace, be born again in us.

There is no better place to experience the peace of Jesus than when we gather at the Altar for Holy Mass. The one born in Bethlehem (which means, in Hebrew, "house of bread") comes to us at every Mass as the "Living Bread from Heaven" (Jn.6:51.)

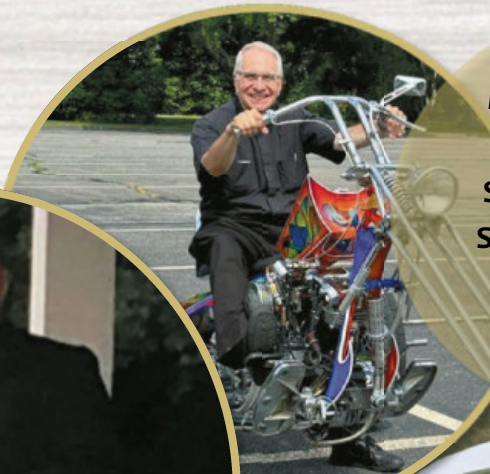

On behalf of Fr. Matthew Laird, our assisting priests and deacons and our dedicated staff, please know of our prayers for you and your families. May St. Joseph, the Guardian of the Holy Family, guard and protect our parish and our families so that we will know the deep peace only Christ can bring.

---A Blessed Christmas. Fr Steve

BISHOP EDGAR'S 2023 CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Dear Friends in Christ, in this familiar passage from our Mass on Christmas, we read that Jesus is the Prince of Peace. "For a child is born to us, a son is given us; upon his shoulder dominion rests. They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace" (Is. 9:5).

Most of the readings for the liturgies on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day tell of the coming of Jesus as a time of peace and remind us that He is the true source of peace, forever holding for us that great gift. In Isaiah, we read, "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings glad tidings, announcing peace, bearing good news" (Is 52:7). And from the Gospel of Luke, "A multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests" (Lk 2:13-14). Even the setting of the birth of Jesus is reported by the Evangelists as one of simplicity and peace. "She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn" (Lk 2:7).

Yet, as we once again celebrate the beautiful feast of Christmas, peace remains elusive for too many and in too many places. We see a world that is torn apart by war and violence, inflicting unimaginable pain and suffering upon countless people. Sadly, we see these things occurring because too many people have rejected Jesus, rejected what He stands for, rejected His example of a life of humility and simplicity, rejected His teaching about love and His message of peace. When humanity becomes indifferent to the person and teaching of Jesus, when we allow self-centeredness to prevail and hatred to fill our hearts, evil will grow in the world, and suffering will befall all humanity.

My hope is that during this Christmas season, parents will teach their children about Jesus and all He taught and did—bringing Jesus into their Christmas celebrations. I pray this Christmas will be more about the miraculous birth of Jesus and less about Santa Claus and that it will be more about simplicity of life and less about consumerism. My greatest desire for each of you is to see this joyous season as one that is more about praying together at home and in church and less about social media and isolation.

Christmas brings the best of God to humanity, His best present to us; therefore, it should also bring the best out of humanity, our best to God and to each other. During this holy season, please be assured of my heartfelt prayers. May God bless you and your loved ones, and may you enjoy a very happy, joyful, blessed, and Merry Christmas.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop Edgar joined us this past Spring to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on our high school parishioners

SACRAMENTS & WORSHIP

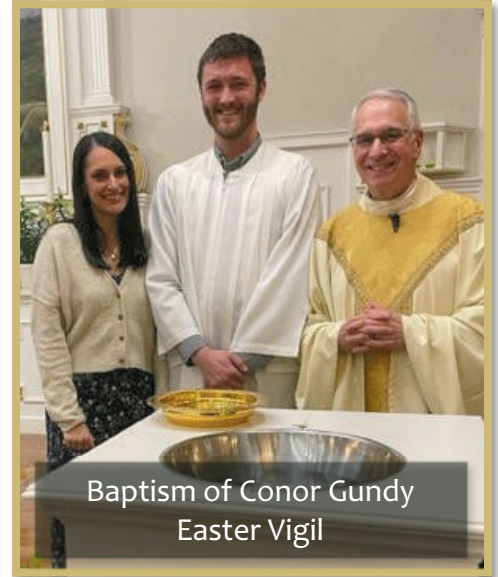

THE CHURCH MAKES JESUS PRESENT IN OUR LIVES

At the heart of the Catholic Faith is the belief that Jesus Christ is still present and active in our world. Jesus built close relationships with His disciples and showed them that He was their loving friend and saving God. He gave them the Holy Spirit so that they would be forever united to Him and showed them how to hand on the Holy Spirit to others so that the whole world could enjoy the same relationship of love with Jesus.

The Church continues to hand on the Holy Spirit in the sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, Marriage, Holy Orders, and above all, in the Eucharist celebrated at Mass where Jesus' very Body and Blood become present for us. St. Joseph's Parish offers the sacraments to our community in a faithful, reverent, and vibrant way. Our parish also hosts a variety of devotions, such as the rosary and the Divine Mercy chaplet on a regular basis. We also hold special events and guest speakers for people to deepen their faith.

Contact Maura at: mpolles@falmouthcatholic.org and Tom at: tpalanzajr@falmouthcatholic.org. If you or someone you know would like more information about becoming Catholic, deepening your faith, or getting more involved in the parish, please contact Maura or Tom!

FORMATION & COMMUNITY

GROWING AS DISCIPLES OF JESUS TOGETHER

Lesson & Carols with the
Stonehill College Chapel Choir

In the Sacraments and worship of the Church, we give thanks to the Father for the gift of the Holy Spirit that unites us to Jesus. This gift of God's love flows from our worship into all parts of our lives. St. Joseph's Parish offers both regularly held as well as special opportunities to help enrich our parishioners' prayer life and formation as disciples of Jesus. Along with daily Mass, weekly Eucharistic Adoration and Reconciliation offer people the chance to be in the presence of Jesus and experience His mercy. Our prayer groups cover a variety of devotions and our ministries and groups are always eager for new members.

If you are interested in joining one of our many ministries, group, or devotions, you can find detailed information about each with contact information on our website: www.FalmouthCatholic.org/parish-ministry

Our youth faith formation program, now led by Mrs. Maura Polles, has adapted to a weekly format so that our catechists and students can have more in person time with each other. We are also still blessed with an Apprentice from the Echo program of the University of Notre Dame, Jacqueline Hale. Our aim is to help our youth feel at home in the parish and able to contribute to the Church!
