SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. BENEDICT JOSEPH LABRE

Benedict Joseph, the oldest of 15 children, was born into a prosperous French family in 1748. He spent much of his childhood with his uncle, a parish priest, who educated him. He tried to enter numerous religious orders, but was refused for various reasons from being too young to not being healthy enough. In his mid twenties he joined the Third Order Franciscans and committed himself to a life of poverty and pilgrimage.

With a crucifix, rosary, and backpack, Benedict became a “Fool for Christ” as it is called in the Orthodox Tradition. Benedict spent his life in prayer, visiting as many shrines and holy places in Europe as he could; never working, just living on alms he was given. The patron saint of the homeless, Benedict gives us an example of how fruitful an “unproductive” life can be. St. Benedict, pray for us!

LAUDATO SI CARE FOR CREATION MINISTRY

More information is forthcoming on our new ministry focused on care for creation. Our parish is committed to respecting the dignity of all God's Creation: from human life to the natural world which are dependent on each other. As Anne Doutriaux, Laudato Si' Coordinator for France prays: "Dear Lord, Look upon our wounded Earth and those who live in it. Look especially at our families. Those who are already suffering from the consequences of the ecological and social crisis. Those who are worried about what lies ahead, and about their children's future."

PRIESTHOOD VOCATION CHALICE

Pray for vocations to the priesthood by signing up to take home the Vocation Chalice! The chalice is kept at St. Anthony church and the signup sheet is located in front of the statue of St. Anthony (to the right of the sanctuary). Participants put their name and phone number on the sheet and select which week they will take the chalice home. The chalice can be picked up at a weekend Mass and then returned to the church on Friday so that the next person can pick it up over the weekend. Brother Bill has agreed to coordinate a similar program of prayer for vocations at St. Elizabeth Seton which will begin there shortly.
