SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. ROSALIA OF SICILY

Nicknamed, “la Santuzza” (“the Little Saint”), Rosalia was born in 1130 AD to a noble family in Sicily. She decided at a young age to remain a virgin and become a hermit living on Monte Pellegrino near Palermo. On the wall of the cave she wrote, “I, Rosalia, daughter of Sinibald, Lord of Monte delle Rose, and Quisquina, have taken the resolution to live in this cave for the love of my Lord, Jesus Christ.” She died young at age 36.

She remained relatively unknown until well after her death. During a plague in 1624, she appeared to a sick woman and then to a hunter, whom she instructed where to find her bones and to bring them back to the city. Her remains were found, brought back to Palermo, and the plague ended in three days. She is now the patron saint of Palermo and of protection against disease. Her quiet life demonstrates how God can work through us at any time!

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is an international ministry whose mission is to encourage prayer for our priests. In our parish, we are hoping to have at least 14 women pray for Fr. Bryan and Fr. Steve. Each woman chooses a different day of the week to offer one hour of individual prayer. For more details, see SevenSistersApostolate.org. If you are interested in being a part of this growing ministry, please reach out to our Anchoress, Deb Reichheld by email at deb.reichheld@gmail.com or at (603) 930-8331.

We have two chalices available to take home to pray for vocations. One is at St. Anthony in front of the statue of St. Anthony, the other is at St. Elizabeth Seton against the wall behind the ambo. Participants write their contact information on a signup sheet kept by the chalice and select which week they will take the chalice home. The chalice should be returned to the church on Friday so that the next person can pick it up over the weekend.
