SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. JOHN PAUL II

Pope Benedict XVI said of Pope John Paul II, "Everyone knows John Paul II: his face, his characteristic way of moving and speaking; his immersion in prayer and his spontaneous cheerfulness. Many of his words have become indelibly engraved in our memories, starting with the passionate cry with which he introduced himself to the people at the beginning of his pontificate: 'Open wide the doors to Christ, and be not afraid of Him!' Or this saying: 'No one can live a trial life; no one can love experimentally.' His entire pontificate is condensed in words like these. It is as though he would like to open the doors for Christ everywhere and wishes to open up to people the gate that leads to true life, to true love." Pope Saint John Paul II, pray for us!

WAYS TO HELP OUT!

The Holy Spirit might be calling you to do something you never expected! Pray about trying:

LECTOR MINISTRY

Only those who have received their Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion may serve as a lector. Do you know why? Because when the Scripture is proclaimed at Mass, it is as if God is saying those words for the first time to the people who are present and only someone who is a member of the Body of Christ and Sealed with the Holy Spirit is able to do that. God speaks to his people in real time through the members of his Body on Earth!

If you feel called to this beautiful ministry, please email us at office@falmouthcatholic.org or call the main office to speak with one of our staff!

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY TO THE HOMEBOUND

Many people are too infirm to attend Mass in person, but instead watch online. However, they are missing the most important part of the Mass, receiving the Eucharist. We need current Eucharistic Ministers to bring the Eucharist to those at home who are unable to come to one of our churches or chapels. If you are a Eucharistic Minister at our Parish and would like to minister to those who are ill, please email the Parish Office at office@falmouthcatholic.org. We especially need Eucharistic Ministers who live here year round.

REALLY PRESENT, REALLY THANKFUL!

LIVING AS A EUCHARISTIC CHURCH: YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT & WHAT YOU DO!

The Second Vatican Council explained that the Sacraments both sanctify us and instruct us; they make us holy and teach us about holiness. They not only presuppose faith, but by words and objects they also nourish, strengthen, and express faith (Catechism, #1123).

When the Church celebrates the sacraments, she confesses the faith received from the apostles - whence the ancient saying: lex orandi, lex credendi (the law of prayer is the law of faith). The Church believes as she prays (Catechism, #1124). In other words, the way we pray shows what we believe, and what we believe should affect the way that we pray. Whether prayer is expressed in words or gestures, it is the whole person who prays. In Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If our heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain (Catechism, #2562).

Pope Benedict XVI said that "A heart reconciled to God makes genuine participation [in liturgy] possible" (Sacramentum Caritatis, 55). The Church's great liturgical tradition teaches us that fruitful participation in the liturgy requires that one be personally conformed to the mystery being celebrated, offering one's life to God in unity with the sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of the whole world (Sacramentum Caritatis, 64).

Our interior dispositions must correspond to our gestures and words. Otherwise, however good our Masses may be, we risk turning Mass into a show, performing actions without believing they do anything to us - our prayer becomes disconnected from our belief.

St. Augustine said that if we receive the body and blood of Jesus properly then we are what we have received, "not only have we become Christians, we have become Christ himself." Receiving the Eucharist alone is not enough to be like Christ. We must also worship and live like Jesus. We'll explore how in future weeks!

The presentation will include an opportunity for Q &A and materials will be available.

Fr Tad is a priest of the Fall River Diocese who has spent most of his priesthood serving at The National Catholic Bioethics Center in Philadelphia.
