SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST COLUMBAN

St. Columban (c. 543–615 AD) was a prominent Irish missionary who helped spread the Christian faith across Europe. After years as a monk at Bangor Abbey in Ireland, he and twelve companions traveled to Frankish Gaul, where they founded numerous monasteries, including the renowned Luxeuil.

Columban was known for his strict monastic rule, deep spirituality, and fearless preaching against moral corruption in both the church and royal courts. His outspokenness led to his exile, but he continued his mission, traveling through present-day Switzerland and finally to Italy, where he established his last great monastery at Bobbio. He is also noted for his writings against the Arian heresy and is the patron saint of motorcyclists. His feastday is celebrated on November 23rd.

HOW-TO CATHOLIC

LIVING AS A EUCHARISTIC CHURCH: WHAT IS THE EUCHARIST?

One of the Church's newest saints, Carlo Acutis, claimed that we who are alive today are even MORE fortunate than those who got to meet Jesus. That doesn't seem right, does it? How could we be luckier than the people who actually got to see and talk with Jesus?

But even Jesus himself, at the end of the Gospel of John, says, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." How are we, who have not seen Jesus, more blessed than those who walked with him, listened to his teaching, were healed by his own hands?

The answer is the Eucharist. Again, in the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." In the Eucharist, Jesus remains with us, is present to us in a way that we can not only see, but can receive!

At Mass, through the Power of the Holy Spirit and the ministry of the Priest acting in the person of Christ, Jesus' Incarnation, Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension are all brought into the present for us. These events are not just past, but we live them again and again in every Mass. Unlike those who saw him 2,000 years ago, we can experience his healing love over and over again. This is why what we do in church matters - because Jesus is always with us, on every altar, in every tabernacle, he is really present.

CREATION CARE MINISTRY

In the month of September, over 40 parishioners attended our showings of "the Letter," a movie made in conjunction with the Vatican about how climate change impacts the poorest and most vulnerable populations most severely. If you would like to learn more about how the Catholic Church views care for creation, then check out our Creation Care Ministry by emailing Paul Skudder at: skudderpaul@gmail.com

As world leaders gather for the 30th annual United Nations Climate Change Conference (COP30), the bishop chairmen who lead committees of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) that address climate policy were joined by the president and CEO of Catholic Relief Services (CRS) to call for urgent, courageous action to protect God's creation and people. Archbishop Borys Gudziak, Bishop A. Elias Zaidan, and Mr. Sean Callahan's released the following statement: "...Pope Leo XIV called for the participants of COP30 to 'listen to the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor, families, indigenous peoples, involuntary migrants and believers throughout the world.' ...A decade ago, in Laudato si', Pope Francis reminded us that the climate is a common good, belonging to all and meant for all, and that intergenerational solidarity is not optional. ... As all of us are impacted, so must we all be responsible for addressing this global challenge." Visit the USCCB's website the read the full statement.
