SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. ANDREW OF VIETNAM

Christianity came to Vietnam through the Portuguese explorers, and the Jesuits opened a mission in 1615. During the 17th - 19th centuries in Vietnam, some 130,000 Christians suffered cruel martyrdom. On November 24, we remember 117 of them, most killed between 1820 - 1883, including Andrew Dung-Lac, killed in 1839. All were canonized on June 19, 1988 by Pope St. John Paul II. Andrew, named Dung An Tran, was born around 1795 in a poor and pagan family in North Vietnam. He met a Christian Catechist, was baptized Catholic, took the name Andrew, learned Chinese and Latin, then was ordained a diocesan priest at age 28. He served as a priest for 16 years before being martyred by the emperor. St. Andrew, pray for us!

HOW-TO CATHOLIC

LIVING AS A EUCHARISTIC CHURCH: WHAT IS THE EUCHARIST?

One of the Church's newest saints, Carlo Acutis, claimed that we who are alive today are even MORE fortunate than those who got to meet Jesus. That doesn't seem right, does it? How could we be luckier than the people who actually got to see and talk with Jesus?

But even Jesus himself, at the end of the Gospel of John, says, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." How are we, who have not seen Jesus, more blessed than those who walked with him, listened to his teaching, were healed by his own hands?

The answer is the Eucharist. Again, in the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." In the Eucharist, Jesus remains with us, is present to us in a way that we can not only see, but can receive!

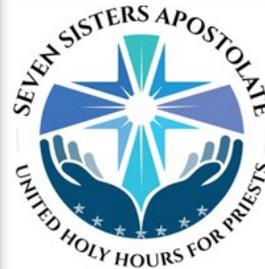

At Mass, through the Power of the Holy Spirit and the ministry of the Priest acting in the person of Christ, Jesus' Incarnation, Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension are all brought into the present for us. These events are not just past, but we live them again and again in every Mass. Unlike those who saw him 2,000 years ago, we can experience his healing love over and over again. This is why what we do in church matters - because Jesus is always with us, on every altar, in every tabernacle, he is really present.

CALLED BY NAME: HELPING THE HOLY SPIRIT INCREASE PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Do you know a young man who might be interested in or well suited for priesthood? Bishop Edgar would like your help to invite them to learn more about discerning a priestly vocation! You can submit names on our website or by using the QR code above to visit the Fall River Diocese Vocations website. You can also submit names using the paper cards in church and putting them in the drop boxes near the vocation chalices at each church.

SUMMA SOCIETY

Would you like to deepen your knowledge of our Catholic faith? Would you like to wrestle theological questions of the deepest nature? What if you could do both guided by one of the best thinkers in the Catholic tradition? Now you can! A new group is gathering people interested in learning more about our faith by studying the work of St. Thomas of Aquino. The Summa Society will meet on the 4th Sunday of each month at 1 pm in the basement hall of St. Anthony church beginning on Sunday, Nov. 30. No experience of St. Thomas' work is necessary, just a curious mind!

CREATION CARE MINISTRY

In the month of September, over 40 parishioners attended our showings of "the Letter," a movie made in conjunction with the Vatican about how climate change impacts the poorest and most vulnerable populations most severely. If you would like to learn more about how the Catholic Church views care for creation, then check out our Creation Care Ministry by emailing Paul Skudder at: skudderpaul@gmail.com

Let there be Light

Advent Small Group Series

This Advent, Fr. Steve and Fr. Bryan will reflect on the theme of light in their homilies then we'll offer times to gather with other parishioners and meditate on the theme further. No registration is required and no book purchase is necessary. Let yourself take the time this Advent to prepare for the coming of Jesus. Take advantage of the opportunity to meet other parishioners and talk about how they have experienced the light of Jesus brightening their lives! Check our website and next week's bulletin for meeting dates and times! Email Tom Palanza Jr. if you would like email updates about the program (tpalanzajr@falmouthcatholic.org).
