SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST THOMAS BECKET

Born in 1119, Thomas Becket's feast day is December 29, the day he was murdered in 1170 by followers of King Henry II. The Church declared him a saint and martyr just two years after his death.

Thomas was born in London to middle class parents. He was educated, but not to a high degree. Still, he landed a job as a clerk in the Archbishop of Canterbury's household. The Archbishop entrusted many duties to Thomas, who carried them out so well that the Archbishop recommended him to King Henry II to be his Lord Chancellor, the administrator of justice in Britain, at just 36 years old. Becket later was elected as Archbishop of Canterbury at age 43. Putting his efforts into protecting the rights of the Church, tensions grew between Thomas and Henry, culminating in his assassination. St. Thomas Becket, pray for us!

If you would like to make a donation to help defray the cost of the conference, you can donate by cash, check (made out to "St. Joseph Parish" memo: SEEK), or on Venmo using the QR code to the left (comment, "SEEK"). More information can be found at our website:

HOW-TO CATHOLIC

LIVING AS A EUCHARISTIC CHURCH: WHAT IS MASS?

Have you ever thought how odd it is that the stuff that keeps us alive - our food - is actually dead? That's why we have to keep it in refrigerators! And not only do we eat dead food, but our consumerist culture has stripped away all the spiritually nourishing aspects of eating, the things that bring us joy: preparing something ourselves and enjoying it with others. This is what Jesus comes to save us from: from a world of dead food, of consumerism - of just keeping ourselves barely alive. The Incarnation of Jesus saves us from being an In-Car-Nation of eaters, surviving off the drive-thru!

Mass is the place where we experience Jesus saving us in real time. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, our altar is the Manger of the Nativity, the Table of the Last Supper, it is the Cross of Calvary and the Tomb of the Resurrection. The ambo is the burning bush for Moses, the silent whisper for Elijah, the angel that speaks to Mary and Joseph. Both in His Word and in His Food, God offers his very self to us - we receive the living God at Mass.

But we do not consume these things like we do our usual food. More is required of us at Mass than at the drive-thru. We do not come to Mass as consumers, but as COMMUNICANTS ready to sacrifice our mortal lives to God in order to receive his eternal life in exchange. Most clearly in Mary we see that the disciple of Jesus must offer God all their heart, mind, word, and actions. And that is what we do at Mass! We offer our hearts in our silent prayers and the sign of peace, we offer our minds by letting the readings instruct us, we offer our words in our singing and our Amens, we offer our actions in our standing, bowing, kneeling, and processing. Our participation in Mass teaches us how to offer up our whole lives to God, to be communicants, not just consumers.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS SUPPORTING THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH

As we approach the end of the calendar year, many parishioners begin to consider their charitable giving and year-end financial planning. If you are eligible and plan to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA, we humbly ask you consider supporting our Parish.

A QCD can be a meaningful way to support the mission and ministries of the Church while potentially reducing your taxable income. Your generosity helps us continue serving our community, maintaining our sacred spaces, and fostering the spiritual life of our Parish family.

If you have questions about making a QCD gift to the Parish, please contact your financial advisor or the Parish Business Office. Thank you for your continued kindness and support. May God Bless you! — Fr. Steve
