SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. JOHN NEUMANN

St. John Neumann was born in 1811 in Bohemia (now part of the Czech Republic). With the guidance of a faithful mother, John grew up attending church at a young age and grew in his love for God. Also interested in reading and botany, John decided to pursue priesthood instead of medicine after discussing it with his family. After years of study, just before ordination, the local bishop told John and his seminary classmates that he would not ordain them because there were already too many priests!

Undeterred, John decided to become a missionary to immigrants in the United States. Learning English, he came to the USA and worked in New York, Maryland, Virginia, and Ohio until becoming bishop of Philadelphia. A gifted organizer, preacher, and spiritual writer, he became the first American Bishop to become a saint.

INTRODUCTION TO PRAYER SMALL GROUPS

Walking in the light of Jesus becomes easier as we get to know Him better, and we get to know Him better through prayer. But maybe prayer is a bit of a mystery for you and you have questions like: Why should I pray? What should I say or do when I'm praying? Who exactly am I praying to? Are there different types of prayer? How can I establish a solid routine of prayer? We will explore these questions together with Bishop Barron in his book, "An Introduction to Prayer." Groups will meet once a week for three weeks to talk about the book. Each location covers the same material each week:

Saturdays, 8:30 am, St. Patrick: Jan 10, 17, 24
Sundays, 11 am, St. Elizabeth: Jan 11, 18, 25
Mondays, 8:30 am, St. Anthony: Jan. 12, 19, 26

Please email Thomas Palanza Jr.,
Pastoral Coordinator, for more details:

Together, let's ensure the Sisters in Spirit Women's Ministry can meet its mission to provide service opportunities, spiritual enrichment, and interesting educational programs all while forming closer relationships. Thank you!

HOW-TO CATHOLIC

LIVING AS A EUCHARISTIC CHURCH:

WHAT IS MASS?

Have you ever thought how odd it is that the stuff that keeps us alive - our food - is actually dead? That's why we have to keep it in refrigerators! And not only do we eat dead food, but our consumerist culture has stripped away all the spiritually nourishing aspects of eating, the things that bring us joy: preparing something ourselves and enjoying it with others. This is what Jesus comes to save us from: from a world of dead food, of consumerism - of just keeping ourselves barely alive. The Incarnation of Jesus saves us from being an In-Car-Nation of eaters, surviving off the drive-thru!

Mass is the place where we experience Jesus saving us in real time. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, our altar is the Manger of the Nativity, the Table of the Last Supper, it is the Cross of Calvary and the Tomb of the Resurrection. The ambo is the burning bush for Moses, the silent whisper for Elijah, the angel that speaks to Mary and Joseph. Both in His Word and in His Food, God offers his very self to us - we receive the living God at Mass.

But we do not consume these things like we do our usual food. More is required of us at Mass than at the drive-thru. We do not come to Mass as consumers, but as COMMUNICANTS ready to sacrifice our mortal lives to God in order to receive his eternal life in exchange. Most clearly in Mary we see that the disciple of Jesus must offer God all their heart, mind, word, and actions. And that is what we do at Mass! We offer our hearts in our silent prayers and the sign of peace, we offer our minds by letting the readings instruct us, we offer our words in our singing and our Amens, we offer our actions in our standing, bowing, kneeling, and processing. Our participation in Mass teaches us how to offer up our whole lives to God, to be communicants, not just consumers.
