SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. AGNES

Agnes' feast day is January 21. Little is known of her except that she was very young (12 or 13) when she was martyred in the third century in the persecution of Christians under the emperor Diocletian. She is often depicted holding a martyr's palm and a lamb (her name, Agnes, is Latin for "lamb").

Legend has it that Agnes was a beautiful girl whom many young men wanted to marry. Among those she refused, one reported her to the authorities for being a Christian. She was arrested and confined to a house of prostitution. The legend continues that a man who looked upon her lustfully lost his sight and had it restored by her prayer. Agnes was condemned, executed, and buried near Rome in a catacomb that eventually was named after her. The daughter of Constantine built a basilica in her honor. She is the patroness of Christian virtue.

SEEK CONFERENCE

Seven of our Parish's young adults returned on January 5 from SEEK, a five-day Catholic conference in Columbus, OH. We attended incredible talks and met great people, but above all, we each experienced the incredibly personal love and mercy of Jesus and are looking forward to pouring that love back on our community in Falmouth. Thank you to all who donated to make this possible.

What is this journey in between the event we call “birth” and the one we call “death”? Is the journey taking you somewhere—a destination that could extend beyond your last breath? What do you want from your life during the in between?

Whether you were raised in a faith tradition or not, most of us are still seeking answers to these questions. Starting Monday, January 12 from 7-8PM in Fatima Hall at St Anthony Church in East Falmouth, all 18-35 year olds are invited to a 7-week food, community, and conversation series to explore some of these questions and discuss what the Catholic Church proposes as answers. Email jhale@falmouthcatholic.org for questions or to RSVP!

INTRODUCTION TO PRAYER SMALL GROUPS

Walking in the light of Jesus becomes easier as we get to know Him better, and we get to know Him better through prayer. But maybe prayer is a bit of a mystery for you and you have questions like: Why should I pray? What should I say or do when I'm praying? Who exactly am I praying to? Are there different types of prayer? How can I establish a solid routine of prayer? We will explore these questions together with Bishop Barron in his book, "An Introduction to Prayer." Groups will meet once a week for three weeks to talk about the book. Each location covers the same material each week:

Saturdays, 8:30 am, St. Patrick: Jan 24

Sundays, 11 am, St. Elizabeth: Jan 18, 25

Mondays, 8:30 am, St. Anthony: Jan. 19, 26

COMMUNITY MEAL: BUILDING COMMUNITY THE JESUS WAY - WITH FOOD!

The Community Meal Ministry hopes to be a place where people can get to know each other. As Jesus ate and drank with all kinds of people, we hope that our shared meal can draw us closer to each other and to Jesus, whose face we see and whose needs are met especially in the most vulnerable of our community.

So far, we have held the meal every other week on Sunday afternoons at St. Patrick church. We are hoping to offer the meal EVERY Sunday, but need more volunteers in order to do so. Please take some time to pray about offering even one Sunday a year to helping the Community Meal! For more information about the program or how to volunteer, please email us at:

Paul Harney is a Financial Planner with and offers securities and investment advisory services through LPL Enterprise (LPLE), a Registered Investment Advisor, Member FINRA/SIPC, and an affiliate of LPL Financial. "Prudential Advisors" is a brand name for the proprietary retail sales channel of The Prudential Insurance Company of America ("PICA") and its insurance company and other affiliates (collectively "Prudential"). Prudential Advisors financial professionals are licensed insurance agents of Prudential. Pursuant to a strategic relationship among Prudential, LPLE, and LPL Financial, Prudential Advisors financial professionals provide securities brokerage services and/or investment advice on securities solely as registered persons of LPLE, an affiliate of LPL Financial.
