5. Jesus tells another parable, or story, in the Gospel today. In the story, a woman asks a judge to make a decision for her. She asks many times before the judge will help her. This story reminds us that God will always listen to us and answer our prayers. What is something that you have asked for from your parents?

Parent Question

1. Our Gospel reminds us that, while sometimes people on earth can let us down, God always hears us, and, in His goodness, always responds to us. Is there something in your life that you have asked God to help you with many times? How have you seen God's response?
