5. This is a special Sunday in the season of Advent. We call this “Gaudete” (gow-DAY-tay) Sunday. Gaudete means “rejoice.” We are rejoicing today because Christmas, the birth of Jesus, is getting very close! What is one reason you have to rejoice, or be happy, today?

Parent Question

1. Advent is a season of hope, where we acknowledge that our salvation is both mysteriously present in our world today, and is yet to be fulfilled in Heaven. Think about John's question to Jesus in today's gospel: Are you the One? Jesus does not answer directly, but points to the signs of the kingdom present in his midst. What is a sign of hope you see in the world today?
