5. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus goes into the desert to pray for 40 days because He loves God so much, and He does not eat during that whole time! The devil tries to tempt Jesus by telling Him to believe in the devil instead of God. Jesus loves God so much that He is able to resist the devil. If we love God very much, we can resist bad things too! What is something that you do or do not do because you love God?
6. This week we began the season in our Church called Lent. Lent is the time when we prepare for Jesus' rising from the dead at Easter. During Lent, we think and pray about Jesus giving up His life for us by dying on the Cross. Many people "give something up" for Lent, because that small sacrifice reminds us of the big sacrifice Jesus made so we could have eternal life. What is something you can give up for Lent?

Parent Question

1. As Lent begins, we often give things up (like coffee or chocolate) to remind ourselves that Jesus made a sacrifice for us on the Cross. While giving things up is a good practice, another practice many Catholics do is to do some kind of service or make a donation of clothes or food to the needy. What is something your family can do for others this Lent?
