Gospel Reflection

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

Jesus tells his disciples, "I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Getting people to see the truth about who they are is not always easy or welcomed. Some people want to believe that they have life under control and they do not need any further advice, direction, or challenge from others. Being heralds of the Gospel means doing precisely that. We come with a message that is not always welcome or desired by our sisters and brothers. Yet, it is desperately needed. People need to be reminded of who they are, who God is, and the necessity of repentance for entering the Kingdom of God. It is not about what we want but what God wants. We are called to be peacemakers and laborers for justice and mercy. Are you willing to bring this challenging message to those who may be indifferent or even hostile to hearing it?

STEWARDSHIP ~ A WAY OF LIFE

REFLECTIONS ON STEWARDSHIP

From Saint Teresa of Calcutta: One night a man came to our house to tell me that a Hindu family of eight children had not eaten anything for days. They had no food. I took enough rice for a meal and went to their house. I could see the hungry faces, the children with their bulging eyes. The sight was very dramatic! The mother took the rice from my hands, divided it in half, and left. When she returned a little later, I asked, "Where did you go? What did you do?"

She answered, "They are also hungry next door." Next door lived a Muslim family of the same size and with no food. The mother had the courage and love to share her meager portion with others. I think she felt very happy to share with her neighbors the little that I had taken her. The theme of stewardship is always part of Jesus' teaching.

"IN WHATEVER DIRECTION WE GO, [GOD] IS THERE BEFORE US, CALLING TO US AND COMING TO MEET US."

| HENRI DE LUBAC |

THIS MONTH'S MINISTRY SALUTE

IN GRATITUDE FOR GOD'S GIFTS OF TIME AND TALENT TO US, WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND SALUTE:

BeFriender Ministry & Jeannie Johnson

The BeFriender Ministry is a lay pastoral care program. It is more a "being" than a "doing" ministry. Specially trained lay persons who have also had background checks enter into caring relationships with others, at times of special need. They visit and be with those who need emotional or spiritual support. BeFrienders are trained to accept people as they are without telling them how they ought to be; to listen with compassion without offering advice; and to allow others to make their own decisions without trying to decide for them. They are there to listen, and be a sounding board, not to solve problems or suggest solutions.

The frequency and duration of the BeFriender relationship is a mutual agreement between the BeFriender and BeFriendee. Visits are generally made on a weekly basis for one hour. As a ministry, the BeFrienders meet once monthly in our Learning Center for formation, role playing possible scenarios, and to voice any issues that may have arisen. All visits and meetings are strictly confidential. Currently this ministry is providing a listening presence to seven people in Flagler County. With questions or for more information, please contact Jeannie at 386/986-7205 or jean@smdmcc.org.

ALWAYS OUR CHILDREN SUPPORT GROUP

Every third Tuesday
(no meetings for the summer, our next meeting will be October 15), Learning Center/ Matthew Room, 7-8:30pm
"We have to find a way to help parents stand by their son or daughter." - Pope Francis

A ministry dedicated to providing an environment of compassionate listening and support for parents who have children with a homosexual orientation. All conversations are protected by the guidelines of Christian confidentiality. Family Members Welcome! Please contact Karyn Jacobs at 386-503-1710. You may also email icanletgo@gmail.com.

CENTERING PRAYER GROUP

The Centering Prayer ministry is dedicated to fostering the process of transformation in Christ through the practices of the Centering Prayer, Lectio Divina, reflection/sacred sharing, and enrichment experiences. Centering Prayer is simply a wordless, trusting opening of self to the divine presence. While it is about the simplest form of prayer there is, it allows us to get in touch with our natural intimacy with God deep within us that often gets lost in the busyness of life. Weekly Centering Prayer sessions are held in the Learning Center. If you are interested in learning more, we are happy to talk with you and email you an informational packet. Please contact Sue McBride, 956-9012.

SPIRIT OF THE LITURGY

Dear friends ... As you recall, at our last meeting, we decided to take the summer off. Many of you have already purchased your books, The Spirit of the Liturgy by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger and would like to continue with our study of this book as our formation tool. Please consider the following two questions as you continue with your reading :

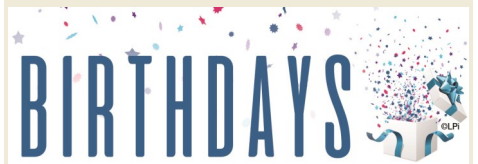

1. What message was Cardinal Ratzinger trying to convey?
2. How has this message influenced your personal experience of the liturgy?

Our next meeting will be at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, August 14 in the Church. We will discuss Part 1, the Essence of Liturgy, Pages 1 through 64.

As many of you have suggested, we will break into small groups to study the above 2 questions and then have a general discussion with the entire group.

On Wednesday, November 13 at 5 p.m., we will meet to discuss Part 2, Time and Space in the Liturgy, pages 67 to 125.

Hopefully we'll conclude the study with our meetings in February and May next year. Thank you all for your dedicated service and may you all have a blessed summer and may God continue to bless our Parish family.

Have you ever wanted to change the world? Fifth century Europe was a dark place. The Roman Empire had fallen, and barbarian tribes were picking over the scraps of what remained. Faith hung on, but there was no consistent, coherent Christian culture in the world around. Young Benedict began his life with education and privilege but became disillusioned by a life pursuing material success. He withdrew to a monastery and spent much time in solitude. He began attracting followers, whom he organized over time into 12 monasteries, with a 13th established to train young monks. He wrote a rule of life including basic principles for living as Christ. His monks took three vows: conversion to Christ, obedience to the local abbot, and stability to remain with the community. Benedictine monasteries became lights in the darkness, secure centers of Christian culture enlivening the faithful beyond their walls. When the world around us seems complicated and contrary to the Gospel, how will you be a light?

Gracias, Merci, Grazie, Obrigado, Dzieki, Shukrani, Arigato.

How many ways can we say THANK YOU? Not nearly enough. Your generous food donations have been a blessing. We, the volunteers of The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, have asked you for your help and you have delivered.

Over the past six months, with your help, we have fed over 550 families in our parish. Your efforts have helped us help 1,650 of your neighbors put food on their table and ease their burden of poverty and need.

We are blessed here in our parish. But the need of our poor and disadvantaged neighbors has not ended. In fact, just recently, Flagler County had to close the Resource Center located in the old jail just east of Bunnell. This center, run by Church Women United, was a major source of food for those in need in our community. The county was forced to make this decision due to the age and condition of the building. There are no plans to relocate or reopen this food bank. Instead, the local churches and charities have been asked to step up and fill this critical need. To date, we have been able to do this.

Again, we thank you for your generosity and support in our ministry of giving service and care for your neighbors in need in our community. We do not ask you to make sacrifices for us, but rather to pray and give what you feel is right. Again, thank you for your outpouring of support.

HAVE YOU EVER CONSIDERED A SPIRITUAL WILL?

What is a Spiritual Will? A Spiritual Will is a testament to your life. It should reveal what has been important to you, how you tried to live your life and what you have learned on your journey.

What I want to leave to my family and friends:

- There is a God who is merciful.
- Follow your conscience do no harm to others and just be happy.
- Read books that lift you up spiritually, physically and educate you, entertain you, and bring you joy.
- Share your life stories and experiences with others; we need to leave our history to give support to descendants.
- Persevere; sometimes the road is rough but keep your eye on the end results and never give up hope.
- Welcome and show love to others, even if they don't share your beliefs and traditions.
- When life is overwhelming, pray or talk to our creator in your own words from your heart and trust God to take care of everything.
- Give, give, donate, support, help, share, acknowledging your own life blessings.
- Don't criticize or pass judgement on yourself or others, that is a special kind of caring.
- Laughing cures a lot; watch a silly movie or a comedian.
- Create – cooking, gardening, writing, painting, telling jokes, dancing, visiting, walking.
- Smile, smile, laugh, laugh, love, love.

The concept for this writing originated from an article published in U.S. Catholic (April 2019) by Sister Mary Petrosky, F.M.M.

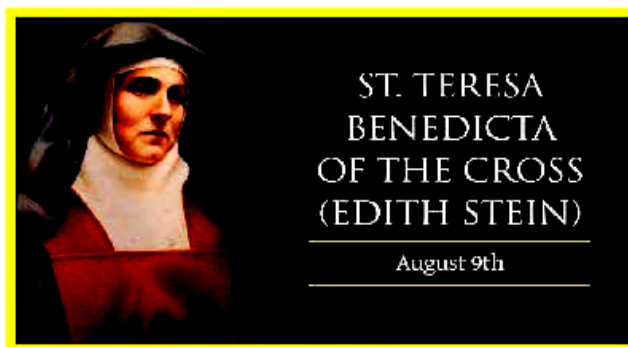

"Blessed Are the Eyes That See What You See."

Spiritual Gifts of Summer

Summer is a time of fulfillment, both in the rich beauty of our gardens and homes as well as our souls. Indeed, blessed are we whom God has given eyes to see God's miracles! You may expect both common and personal prayer time, reflective input, a delicious lunch and a beautiful and relaxing environment.

St. Edith Stein's amazing life of survival, commitment and the search for truth serves us as guide for our summer prayer.

BORN-ALIVE ABORTION SURVIVORS PROTECTION ACT

The U.S. Senate recently failed to pass the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act—legislation that prohibits infanticide by ensuring that a child born alive following an attempted abortion would receive the same degree of care to preserve her or his life and health as would be given to any other child born alive at the same gestational age. Please join us in prayer for an end to infanticide:

Jesus, Lord of life, transform the hearts of all elected leaders to recognize that infanticide is wrong and must not be tolerated. Open hearts and minds to recognize and defend the precious gift of every human life.

HELPING INMATES EARN AN EDUCATION

The Social Justice Ministry provides volunteer resources for a GED (General Education Diploma) Prep Program for inmates at the Flagler County Jail in Bunnell. Currently male and female volunteers from our church provide classroom management and/or instruction Monday through Thursday in close collaboration with the Director of Offender Rehabilitation and Inmate Services at the jail and Flagler Technical Institute, an extension of Flagler Public Schools.

Additional volunteers are now needed to augment our current resources. You would be asked to volunteer one day per week on a day of your choice, Monday through Thursday, or as a substitute who would fill in for existing volunteers from time-to-time.

Completion of County Jail paperwork, including a background check and an orientation, are required.

Interested men may contact parishioner Gary Yezbick at gyezbeck@gmail.com or 734-646-4427 for further information.

Persons interested in the women's program may contact parishioner Cynthia Dodzik at cdodzik@gmail.com or phone /text at 260-348-6593.

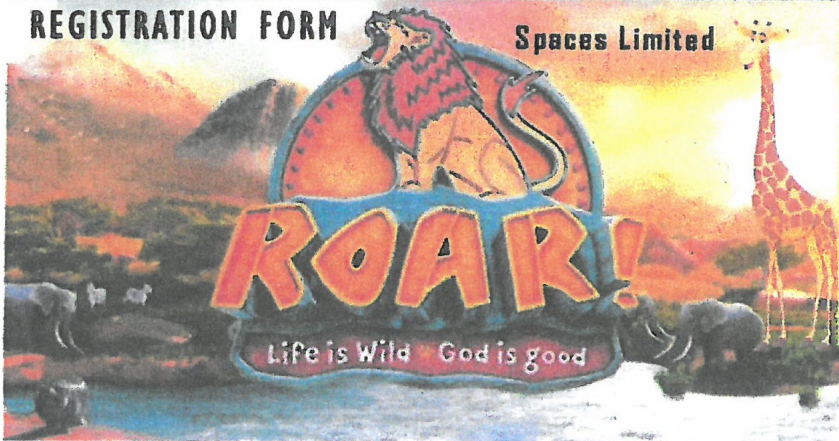

Many thanks for considering this deeply rewarding ministry!
