DON'T FEAR CHANGE

There are many things of which we can be afraid: being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. For some, identifying and overcoming their fears is a daunting task. Regardless of how much they may want to break the cycle of fear, they find that they remain close friends with old and dysfunctional behavioral habits and norms. Maybe what they really fear is change. There are many who gravitate to the familiar and comfortable, and find safety and security in doing so, even if they remain mired in mediocrity. Human beings have to learn that there is life beyond the "what has always been" and that happiness and depth are possible when old structures and systems have to be left behind.

Can you leave the near and dear, the comfortable and familiar, the safe and secure, and discover new opportunities? The sheer thought of doing so can bring on feelings of apprehension, intense anger, resentment, defensiveness, reluctance, resistance, and even apathy. If we have to be responsible for making the change, cowardice can creep in. If someone else is to blame for making the change, any number of possible negative reactions are possible. In the end, only one thing is required and that is God. If I can rely on and deepen my relationship with God, especially in the Eucharist along with a community of believers, then little else is of great concern. We have to figure out what is really important. It is not always what we think.

The Gospel calls us to stretch ourselves and try new things, not to remain stuck and stagnant in familiar ways. We are asked to live life more deliberately, radically, and intentionally. We are asked to leave the familiar behind and learn to live with changing, and often limiting, human structures. We cannot get too caught up in the physical, ideological, or structural systems we are used to. The Holy Spirit always leads and guides us. If we trust this, we will find ourselves doing things we never thought we could do. Always seek the path to joy and love. They keep us from falling victim to our fears and from seeking the nostalgic crutches we think we need to achieve a sense of well-being and happiness.

STEWARDSHIP ~ A WAY OF LIFE

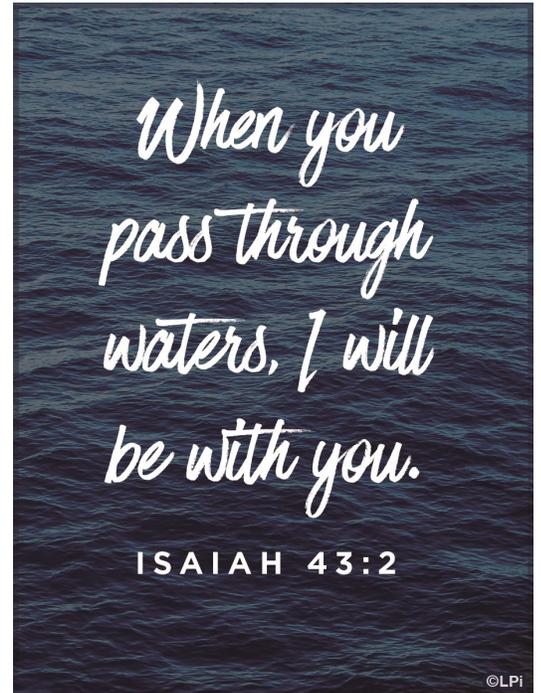

REFLECTIONS ON STEWARDSHIP

We have heard the words of the song, "Turn Your Frown Upside Down." That would be a smile.

In today's first readings we hear: "But the Lord is with me as a strong warrior" (Jer 20:11), and in the Gospel Jesus tells us, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (Matt 10:28).

Pray that as we go through troubling times, we can act God-like and give condolences and assistance as Stewards of Christ.

Lord, I do not ask that I never be afflicted, but only that you never abandon me in affliction. St. Bernadette Soubirous

THIS MONTH'S MINISTRY SALUTE

IN GRATITUDE FOR GOD'S GIFTS OF TIME AND TALENT TO US, WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND BLESS:

THOSE WHO HAVE FORMED AND SUSTAINED SANTA MARIA DEL-MAR DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

What an awesome responsibility to shepherd this parish during an unprecedented occurrence that has changed the shape of the nature of the daily and weekly events that maybe we have taken for granted.

There will always be Mass, the Sacraments, classes, prayer groups, adoration, music, hospitality, youth events, etc. But the rhythm of our lives has been interrupted. Those happenings and events that are so important to us are now challenging us to do without.

Who will rescue some of the daily events that we hold dear? Well, have faith that when there is a need some do come forth. Mass is offered maybe in a different manner, as are all the other aspects of our worshipping and community life but we are adapting.

Who has held us together? Of course, our Pastor, Father Manny Lopez, our Deacons, our Council members led by the Parish Advisory staff, complemented with the parish administrative staff and a sizable group of parish members who have soared into action to devise and implement a blueprint of how to go forward.

So to those men and women who have come forth during this distressful period offering their assistance, with their extraordinary gifts, to assist Santa Maria del Mar Parish, we say "thank you and God bless you"; this community will always be grateful for your watchfulness and care. You are living examples of compassion and each and every one of you truly embodies Stewardship. You have helped all of us in keeping our faith alive and well.

LEGION OF MARY

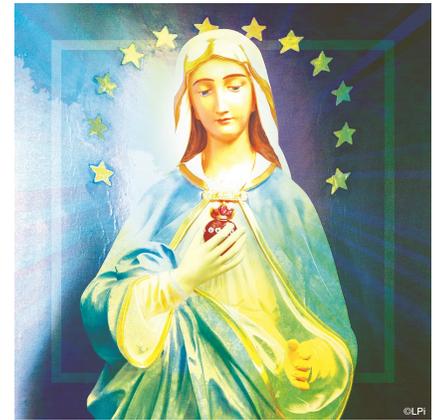

The Legion of Mary is one of the largest lay apostolic associations in the Catholic Church, with several million members serving in most countries of the world.

The goal of the Legion is to make its members better Catholics – through a balanced program of prayer and service in union with the Holy Spirit as He operates through Mary, the Mother of the Church.

Our members participate in the life of the parish by visiting families, the sick (both in their homes, nursing homes, and hospitals), and by collaborating with other ministries in any apostolic undertakings sponsored by the Parish.

Our members meet weekly for prayer, spiritual reflection, discussion, and planning in a family atmosphere. Then, we are assigned an apostolic work and report back the following week.

We are currently meeting virtually each Friday at 10:30am. For more information and sign-on details, contact Steven Neyer at 215-527-7411.

HOW TO PROTECT THE ENVIRONMENT EVEN DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

DIVERT RAINWATER

Using a downspout extension or diverter will allow you to redirect rainwater from your gutters away from paved surfaces, toward your garden or lawn where the water will be absorbed decreasing the amount of runoff that finds its way to the canal.

If your downspout is located too far from your lawn or garden, you can install a rain barrel under your downspout, which will collect the rainwater for you to use later and lessen the amount of runoff.

ATTENTION: The Diocese of St. Augustine treats all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and deals with all allegations in a prompt, confidential, and thorough manner. To Report Abuse, call the police or the Department of Children & Families at (800) 962-2873. Or call the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (904) 208-6979 or email inquiries@dosaf1.com. DOUG HILL: A Long Journey Converting To Catholicism

Doug Hill was raised in the Episcopal Church but has been on a mission to becoming accepted in the Catholic Church in full participation for a long time.

Doug, along with his three brothers attended the Episcopal Church in Philadelphia. He was baptized and received First Communion and Confirmation in the Episcopal church.

Kim and Doug met at a dance and instantly felt a connection. They have been married for 10 years.

Two years ago Doug and Kim decided to leave the cold climate. After looking in the Volusia and Flagler area, they found the perfect home in Palm Coast. At that point in their life together they wanted a church where they both would feel welcomed and could become active in parish life.

They were driving around and spotted Santa Maria del Mar Church and Doug said "that is the church that I want to join."

Both Kim and Doug were previously married and each had children, so becoming Catholic has taken time and for Doug discovering and learning about the Catholic faith. To this purpose Doug attended the Welcome Catholic program and then the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). During the waiting period, Doug has immersed himself in Catholic literature reading many of the books available in the parish library.

Doug and Kim are both retired, but Doug has just started a handyman service, and Kim enjoys volunteering at the St. Vincent DePaul Ministry/Store. They both love animals and have had many pets that are an important part of their lives. Their dogs are Benny, Patty and Shakey Jake. A favorite canine pet, Smitty, recently passed away. That left both Kim and Doug broken hearted.

You can see Doug and Kim at the 4 p.m. Mass on Saturday night and often Doug attends Mass during the week.

Doug can't wait until he is officially a member of the Catholic Church. He has been working diligently toward that goal, accepting the wait while enjoying the acceptance, warmth and friendliness of Santa Maria's parishioners and clergy.

Presently Doug and Kim are immersed in the Pastoral Initiative Program. Doug will be ready to officially become a member of the Catholic Church very soon.

When Doug completes his journey, he plans to be even more involved by ushering at Masses, maybe joining the Knights, maybe becoming a lector or Eucharistic Minister. The opportunities to serve are endless in scope.

At the end of his life journey, he hopes to hear, "Well done good and faithful servant."

Will You Say Yes?

You find yourself in the difficult situation of being accused of blasphemy and confronting possible execution. Your crime is believing in Jesus Christ. The question is then asked of you, "Are you a Christian, a follower of the one named Jesus Christ?" Your answer may very well dictate what happens to you next. What is your answer?

It is probably easier to answer this question when the scenario is make-believe. All of us want to believe that we would say yes to the question of belief in Jesus, but strange things happen when humans panic in the face of extreme stress. As we reflect on what we would say, there are those all over the world who are being asked that very same question. It is a question that was asked of many in the first centuries of the Church. Those who respond "yes" are considered martyrs and saints.

We might not usually think of all this in terms of good stewardship living. However, our faith is also a gift we have received from God to cultivate, grow, and share with others. The more interesting question than the one posed above is, "Would an accuser even think of asking you such a question?" Would you have cultivated, grown, and shared your faith enough that anyone would even consider you worthy of asking the question? They might assume you don't know Jesus Christ at all. I don't like conflict and do not seek out conflict, but I would rather someone ask the first question posed than assume there is no reason to confront me in the first place.

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

June 22–29

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. Join us in promoting religious freedom For the Good of All.

All people desire to know their Creator. All people have a natural impulse to seek the good and to live in accordance with that good. All people can flourish when they pursue the truth about God and respond to the truth.

Religious freedom means that all people have the space to flourish. Religious freedom is both an American value and an important part of Catholic teaching on human dignity. When we promote religious freedom, we promote the common good and thus strengthen the life of our nation and the community of nations.
